MR. IGNATIUS DONNELLY, of Minnesota, has lost his wife by death, she was a devoted Catholic.

THE bicycle rider bending over his machine with serious face provokes a quotation from Shakespeare: "Double, double toil and trouble."

CARDINAL MORAN, Archbishop of Sydney, Australia, has completed his "History of the Catholic Church in Australasia." It will be published simultaneously in Australia and in England before the close of the year.

Last night an awful dream I had, 'Twas a dream that made me shiver, I saw a cat fish for a shad, And the shad row up the river.

This total daily average number of patients in the Winnipeg General hospital for the week ending Saturday, July 23, was 71, of which 48 were males and 23 females. Twenty-four out patients were also treated during the week.

DEVOTION to Saint Ann, the mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is spreading and deepening. Her feast to-morrow will be widely celebrated. Her shrine at Beauport in Canada, annually attracts a multitude of pilgrims. Many speak her praise, having themselves experienced the efficacy of her intercession.

THERE is but little consolation for the farmer in the fact that the price of a bushel of wheat to-day will buy as many groceries and dry goods as could be obtained for a bushel of the same when the price was double what it is now. If wheat is sold for fifty cents a bushel and it costs that amount to raise it, the farmer has nothing left to expend for the articles named.

In its local columns the Washington, D. C., Star says: "Much gratification is felt here at the issue by Archbishop Feehan of his circular to all Catholic priests, enjoining them to impress on their congregations the patriotic duty of yielding respect and obedience to the lawful authorities." The Catholic church is always on the side of law and order, and of authority properly exercised.

THE Catholics of Manitoba have obtained leave from the English privy council to appeal to it from the decision of the Canadian supreme court which denied them separate government schools. We hope that this appeal will result in restoring to them their rights that they had when Manitoba joined the Dominion. A Christian child is entitled to a Christian education. No government should compel it to be instructed without faith or morals.—New York Catholic Review.

It is not often that twin brothers are ordained priests on the same day in the same place. In the Cathedral of Detroit, on July 1, Reverend Peter and Michael Esper received Holy Orders from Right Reverend Bishop Foley. This is the second case of the kind in the history of the church in the United States—the other instance being offered by the Quinn brothers, of Peoria, Illinois, who were ordained in the Cathedral of Baltimore some years ago. We ask the prayers of the readers of the Review for the brothers Esper that they may see fulfilled all their hopes in the priesthood.

DURING the past week the trains from the east have brought in a large number of passengers, many of whom will take up their abode in the province and territories.

THE Queen's hotel which has been closed down for the past couple of months having been entirely renovated, was reopened on Monday evening under the new management of Messrs. Bennett & Bateman.

To judge from the appearance of the Brandon Sun for the past few issues one would be under the impression that it was suffering from a total eclipse. The Sun never did throw a very brilliant light, but of late to use the proper term, it is truly obscure.

MR. JAMES MOHONEY left on Friday evening last for the home of his childhood near Barrie, Ont. Mr. Mahoney who has recently taken up housekeeping went east in order to bring home two of his little children who have been cared for by his parents, during the past two years since the death of his first devoted wife.

MRS. J. HOGAN, formerly a resident of this city, but for the past five years has been residing in Seattle, W. T., is on a visit to friends in St. Boniface and Winnipeg. Mrs. Hogan who became one of the first subscribers to the Review in its infancy and still recognizing the value of our little paper in the cause of justice and truth, paid us a friendly call last week.

THE energetic members of the Immaculate Conception parish intend taking a day's outing at River Park on Thursday August the 9th in the form of a basket picnic. The low fare including car fare to and from the grounds being placed at 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children should if nothing else ensure a large gathering. Music will be furnished by the St. Boniface brass band, and the committee in charge intends to make this picnic in the way of games and sports one long to be remembered by those who attend.

As a sample of the hard times felt in the Western States, we reproduce a somewhat humorous advertisement that recently appeared in a contemporary. It may be intended to convey sarcasm, but it is nevertheless indicative of the true state of affairs across the border. "On account of the hard times," says an advertiser in a western paper, "we have reduced the price of our excellent clothes lines to 10 cents for sixty feet. Gentlemen who are contemplating suicide, as well as those thinking of starting their wives out to do washing to support the family, will do well to give us a call."

THE Brooklyn (N. Y.) Times, in speaking of a negro membership among the A. P. A. says: But the promoters of the order should not neglect the Indians. Most of these are native Americans, whose ancestors settled here even before the Mayflower was chartered to convey the Pilgrim immigrants to Massachusetts and many of them have labored strenuously and at great personal sacrifice to discourage immigration. As a rule, also, they have been kept free from the pernicious influence of the schoolmaster, that deadly enemy of the ignorant and bigoted in which such organizations as the A. P. A. flourish best.

SOME of these P. P. A., jugglers and anti-Catholic Zealots might take a lesson of Christian courtesy from Bishop Ludden, of Albany, N. Y., who sent the following letter of congratulation to Episcopal Bishop Huntington of Syracuse on the recent occasion of his silver jubilee: "Rt. Rev. Dear Sir—I see you are about to celebrate an interesting period in the 'ripe and mellow' years of your ministry. As I shall be absent from home on the occasion of the celebration in your honor, I must beg to anticipate with these my congratulations, and I pray God to add yet many peaceful years to your useful and honored life."

LADY ABERDEE is being cordially received in the Catholic institutions of Ireland. Her Excellency recently visited the Convent of Mercy, Kinsale, and on her appearance she was greeted with an original composition, which was sung to the air of "Come Back to Erin." The words were as follows:

Welcome to Erin, Mavourneen, Mavourneen With hearts full of joy your coming we hail. Child of the thistle and shamrock, Mavourneen Oad Mille fallte once more to Kinsale.

Tho' Canada claims you from home and from Erin, Still do you faithfully bear us in mind. And brave loss and danger, Mavourneen, Mavourneen, For dear Erin's children employment to find.

Oh, how we treasure, Mavourneen, Mavourneen. The love you have shown to our country and race. Your zeal in our cause and your efforts to help us. In our warm Irish hearts have won you a place.

May our Heavenly Father, so rich in rewarding, Our debt of gratitude amply repay. On Aberdeen's house bestow choicest blessings. And crowns everlasting we earnestly pray.

"How does Tankins manage to keep up his extravagant mode of living?" "He has credit." "How did he get it?" "By pretending to be worried almost to death over the income tax."

"How is your father coming on?" asked Colonel Yerger of a darky he used to own before the war. "He am dead."

"He must have reached an advanced age." "He did dat, for a fac.' He was libin up to de berry day ob his deif."

A Grand Success.

The grand musical entertainment given on Thursday evening last, in the Citizens' rink, corner of Austin and Jarvis streets, under the auspices of the ladies of the Immaculate Conception was a grand success. The evening was all that could be wished for, and the spacious interior of the rink notwithstanding the large crowd, furnished ample room for all. There being no programme on the occasion, the Rev. A. A. Cherrier previous to each act stepped forward on the platform, and in his usual pleasing manner announced what might be expected, and we are pleased to say that the whole affair passed off without a ripple, reflecting great credit upon those whom took part therein. While the musical portion of the entertainment was being carried out intervals of fifteen minutes intermission were given, which afforded the young man plenty of time for a promenade with his "best girl" and to treat her to ice cream etc., provided by the ladies, who ever understand how to take in "the cash." Music was furnished by Evan's orchestra, and taking everything into consideration a most enjoyable evening was spent, everybody returning home wishing the entertainment had lasted longer.
