

Here's What We Kept

- Canada will keep the right to control entry of foreign banks into Canadian financial markets.
- Canada will keep full power to regulate chartered financial institutions operating in Canada.

How Do You Benefit?

- The FTA will open up a major new area of the securities market for Canadian banks in the U.S.
- If you are a Canadian bank or insurance company or a shareholder in one, you will have secure access to the U.S. You can compete on an equal footing with your American counterparts.
