W.E. Y.M.C.A. HOUSE LEAGUE.

With only six more games to play, with Dusters and Cleaners tied for first place, there is a fever-heated interest around West End to pick the winner, which is a problem, since Dusters took two out of three from Cleaners at their last meeting. The fight for the second division is causing lots of amusement, the Polishers pulling up within one game of the Bruisers. The scores were not very startling, owing to a new set of pins for the alleys. It certainly needed a lot of rapping to down them. Bill Boland was high man for three games, with 567, and Gordon Gynn high single, with 217. Results:
