

Bulletin V.—Religions of the people.
Bulletin VI.—Sexes and conjugal condition of the people.

Bulletin VII.—Population by origins and nationalities.

Bulletin VIII.—Immigration and birthplace of the people.

Bulletin IX.—Infirmities of the people.

Bulletin X.—Ages of the people.

Bulletin XI.—Agricultural statistics, Prince Edward Island.

Bulletin XII.—Agricultural statistics, British Columbia.

Bulletin XIII.—Agricultural statistics, Nova Scotia.

Bulletin XIV.—Agricultural statistics, Northwest Territories.

Bulletin XV.—Agricultural statistics, Manitoba.

Bulletin XVI.—Agricultural statistics, New Brunswick.

Bulletin XVII.—Agricultural statistics, Ontario.

Bulletin XVIII.—Agricultural statistics, Quebec.

Volume I. of the census, which deals wholly with population, the following being the tables :

I.—Population of 1871, 1881, 1891 and 1901, compared by electoral districts within their present limits.

II.—Houses, families and population in 1891-1901, compared by census districts.

III.—Sex and conjugal condition in 1891-1901, compared by census districts.

IV.—Rural and urban population in 1891-1901, compared by census districts.

V.—Population of cities and towns having over 5,000 inhabitants in 1901, compared with 1871-81-91.

VI.—Areas of lakes in Canada.

VII.—Areas, houses, families, population, sex, conjugal condition.

VIII.—Religions of the people by provinces.

IX.—Principal religions by census districts, 1891-1901.

X.—Religions of the people by sub-districts.

XI.—Origins of the people.

XII.—Nationalities.

XIII.—Birthplace by provinces.

XIV.—Birthplace by census districts.

XV.—Birthplace and citizenship of immigrants.

XVI.—Immigrants by provinces.

XVII.—Immigrants by census districts.

XVIII.—Population by birthplace—1881, 1891, 1901.

4. The 52 tables comprising the census statistics of agriculture and dairy products were finally completed and transmitted to the printer in the month of December last. These were intended to make Volume II. of the report; but as the printing office could not print these the tables of forest products, fisheries and minerals were subsequently added so as to embrace in one volume the statistics of natural products, all now being in the hands of the King's Printer.

Mr. FISHER.

All the tables of the census of manufactures (1901)—twenty-one in number—were completed in December, and they are awaiting the convenience of the Printing Bureau.

5. A fourth volume comprising statistics of ages, infirmities, morality, occupations and wages and real estate will complete the work of the census, and I hope will be issued to members of the House before the end of the present calendar year.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS AT ST. JOHN, N.B.

Mr. DANIEL asked :

1. Who is the collector of customs at the port of St. John, N.B. ?

2. Has the government been informed of the demise of W. A. Lockhart, collector of customs at the port of St. John, N.B. ?

3. On what date did the office of collector at that port thus become vacant ?

4. Has any appointment to fill the vacancy been made ? If not, why not ?

5. When does the government propose to fill the vacancy ?

Hon. WILLIAM PATERSON (Minister of Customs):

1. Mr. Dunn. George F. Matthew, surveyor of customs acted as collector at the port of St. John, N.B., after the death of the late collector until the appointment of the present collector.

2. The death of Collector Lockhart took place on November 9, 1903.

INSPECTION AND SALE OF SEEDS.

Mr. LENNOX asked :

1. What steps have been taken since 23rd July last to acquaint the farmers of Canada and other interested parties, with the provisions of Bill (No. 200) an Act respecting the inspection and sale of seeds, introduced and discussed last session ?

2. What information has been obtained from farmers or farmers' associations ?

3. Is it the intention of the government to enact a law in the terms of the said Bill, or any similar law, at the present session ?

Hon. SYDNEY FISHER (Minister of Agriculture):

1. Some thirty thousand copies of the Bill, substantially in the form in which it was introduced and discussed last session, were printed in pamphlet form, with explanations of its several clauses and comments thereon, and distributed among the farmers of Canada and other interested parties. In addition to this distribution, at many of the Farmers' Institute and other agricultural meetings, held throughout the