

Questions

Guaranty Trust of Canada; 1966—executive director Association of Canadian Better Business Bureaux Inc. member of Ottawa advisory board, Guaranty Trust Co. of Canada; Queen's University council; advisory board, school of business, Queen's University; honorary secretary, Boy Scouts of Canada; governor United Scholarship fund; member of Ottawa Board of Trade Council; advisory board YM-YWCA, Ottawa; board of management, Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada; past director of Booth Lumber Company Limited; Beach Foundry Limited, and Charles Ogilvy Limited; member of St. Paul's Masonic lodge, Montreal.

4. Mr. Gerald Joseph Gaudet, B.A., B.Sc., B.Arch., of Moncton, N.B.—appointed to the National Capital Commission on 7 June, 1966. Graduate of Sacred Heart University, Bathurst, N.B.; University of New Brunswick (civil engineering—1950), and McGill University, 1953 (B.Arch.). Member of Architects' Association of New Brunswick; Association of Professional Engineers. Three years in construction, city of Moncton; one year architect's office in Montreal; and one year engineer's office, Montreal. From June 1954 to June 1963, in practise as LeBlanc & Gaudet; from June 1963 to December 1964—LeBlanc, Gaudet, Roy & Siemers; since January 1965—Gaudet & Roy.

5. Major General Howard Kennedy, CBE., M.C., ED., B.Sc., CE., FE., M.E.I.C. of Rockcliffe, Ontario—appointed member of the National Capital Commission on 23 April 1964. Graduated from McGill University in civil engineering in 1914. Became forestry engineer in 1929. Has a distinguished record in two world wars. After the first world war, was assistant chief engineer of E. B. Eddy Company, and later general manager of the Quebec Forest Industries Association. After the second world war, was vice president in charge of woodlands for the Quebec North Shore and Ontario Paper Companies. In 1946 and 1947 he was a one-man provincial royal commission to report on conditions and needs of the forests of Ontario. In 1947, he was appointed chairman of the Eastern Rockies Forest Conservation board. In June 1952, he was appointed to National Capital planning committee; in November 1952, appointed chairman of Federal District Commission, and on 6 February 1959, was appointed chairman of National Capital Commission. Resigned 31 March 1960.

23033—571½

6. Mr. Warnett Kennedy, A.R.I.B.A., A.M.T.P.I., P.I.B.C., M.S.I.A., of Vancouver, B.C.—appointed to the National Capital Commission on 7 June, 1966. Graduated and practised architecture in Glasgow, Scotland. Practised architecture and industrial design in London for 12 years. Was chief designer "Power, Production, Industry and Commerce" for the Festival of Britain, 1951. Vancouver architect and planning consultant since 1952. B.C. representative on National Industrial Design Council, Ottawa, for three years. Executive director of the Architectural Institute of B.C. and the architectural centre. Was professional advisor for Simon Frazer University competition, 1963; Students' Union building complex at U.B.C., competition for regional college at Castlegar. He is member of National Design Council in Ottawa; president of the Men's Canadian Club of Vancouver; chairman of the civic affairs committee, Vancouver Board of Trade.

7. Mrs. B. Earle MacDonald, of Charlottetown, P.E.I.—appointed to the National Capital Commission on 26 August, 1966. Graduate of Charlottetown Business College. Regent Royal Edward Chapter, I.O.D.E., organizing secretary, I.O.D.E., P.E.I. national councillor I.O.D.E. provincial president for P.E.I. (first) I.O.D.E.; leader Girl Guides, member provincial executive Girl Guide National; councillor Canadian Girl Guide Association, member provincial executive Girl Guides. Member P.E.I. Historical Society, taught Sunday School Zion Presbyterian for 25 years; treasurer Sunday School for 25 years. Red Cross corps (local) 1940-46 nursing division, blood donor clinic.

8. Mr. Auguste Martineau, M.I.R.A.C., P.Q.A.A., O.A.A., of Ottawa, Ontario—appointed to the National Capital Commission on 3 September 1964. Graduated in architecture from l'École des Beaux Arts de Québec in 1930, and has done post-graduate work in architecture at Columbia University, New York city. Member of province of Quebec Architects' Association since 1930, and of the Ontario Architects' Association since 1940. Has been vice chairman of Ottawa Transportation Commission, and is director of CJOH-TV, Ottawa.

9. Mrs. James P. Norrie, B.A., of Truro, Nova Scotia—appointed to the National Capital Commission on 13 February, 1964. Graduate of Mount Allison University. Mrs. Norrie has held office in numerous organizations of a philanthropic and social nature.