

and objective manner, can the college uphold her reputation. And such an object cannot be obtained by a faculty which is responsible to a bias partisan and biased down plutocracy, and which teaches the young to believe blindly in christianity and the British Empire.

I remain, &c.,

John F. Close, Com.'53.