

CODICIL.

On the fifteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, before the undersigned Notaries Public for the Province of Quebec, residing in the city of Montreal, in the said Province, appeared,

DONALD ROSS, of the parish of Montreal, in the district of Montreal, Esquire, the Testator in the foregoing will and testament, named, bearing date and executed before William Ross, one of the subscribing Notaries, and his colleague Notary, the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, who being desirous of making a codicil to the same, hath dictated to me, the said William Ross, in the presence of J. B. Houlé, Esquire, our confrere Notary, the said codicil, word for word, as follows:

I give, devise, and bequeath, from and after my decease, unto my beloved wife, Jane Ross, during her natural life, in addition to, and over and above what she is entitled to by our marriage contract, the usufruct and enjoyment of all and singular the property, real and personal, moveable and immoveable, of what nature, kind, value, and description soever, and wheresoever situate, and being of which I shall die possessed or to which I shall be in any-wise entitled at the time of my decease, subject to the payment of the following legacies or bequests:

Unto Grace J. Birnie and Maria Raylor, the two daughters of the Reverend Donald Ross, formerly of Chatham, now of Lachine, minister of the Gospel, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars each.

Unto my sister Jess or Janet, wife of Alexander Ross, two hundred dollars.

Unto my cousin Kate Ross, wife of C. Gethings, of Quebec, one hundred dollars.

Unto my cousin Effy, wife of Hope Sewell, of Quebec, one hundred dollars.

Unto William Munro, son of Donald Munro, of Delny, by Invergordon, Ross-shire, Scotland, the sum of two hundred dollars.

Unto my cousin, sister of the said Mrs. Sewell, and widow of the late Mr. Lemoine, of Quebec, one hundred dollars.

I hereby cancel and revoke the legacy or bequest to my cousin Eliza F. Ross, stated in my said last will.
