

To the KING.

his Dominions, has found in your Majesty a Valiant and Trusty Defender; who being Seconded by the Invincible Elector of Bavaria, protects the Spanish Dominions against a Prince who makes all possible Efforts to deprive his Catholick Majesty thereof, notwithstanding their Proximity of Blood, and his Professing the Same Religion.

His Catholick Majesty having therefore so often experienc'd that your Majesty's Royal Word is more firm than other Princes Treaties and Solemn Oaths, could not also but leave his Dominions to your Disposal; shewing by that unparallel'd Piece of Trust, how much he relies upon your Majesty's Honour, and what Esteem he has for your Royal Vertues, which are mix'd with no manner of Imperfections.

I don't question but many, out of Envy or Malice, will blame me for entring into your Majesty's Service; but
