

You will receive that same Divine Saviour,—who was crucified on Mount Calvary for the sins of the world,—who ascended into heaven, and is now seated at the right hand of God. Humble yourself in the presence of his incomprehensible majesty, exclaiming in the word of the Psalmist: “What is man, O Lord! that thou art mindful of him, or the Son of man that thou visiteth him.” While you acknowledge your unworthiness that he should enter under your roof, let your heart expand at the contemplation of his goodness, ardently desiring to be united to him, and to make him the only object of your affections for time and eternity.

His dictis, accedat ad infirmum, ut cognoscat num sit bene dispositus ad suscipiendum sacrum Viaticum, et utrum velit aliqua peccata confiteri; et illum audiat, atque absolvat: quamvis prius deberet esse rite confessus, nisi necessitas aliter urgeat.

Postea facta de more confessione generali, sive ab infirmo, sive ejus nomine ab alio, Sacerdos dicit: Misereatur, etc. Indulgentiam, etc.

Deinde facta genuflexione accipit Sacramentum de Vasculo, atque illud elevans ostendit infirmo dicens: Ecce Agnus Dei, ecce qui tollit peccata mundi: et more solito ter dicat: Domine, non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum; sed tantum dic verbo, et sanabitur anima mea.
