

place of that fort:
r, he found another.
" This he called
slow and incapable
and, though he de-
sch he calls shallow.
in river of the French.
that is about the dis-

select them. They Magnal. book i. 6 ;
hinson, i. 3 ; Bel-
d by some English
ly conceived, might
ates for the English
ted, that writers, of early times into the
tans removed from
e and unpersecuted,"
the text, the true
ession of regret, that
ng article, have been
of our own country.
seem not yet to be
ning, of piety, and of
rom the church of
his mistake, and be-ration." Baylie, who llows, that " Mr. Ro-
ed and modest spirit,
the rigid separation ;
Prince, 86—94 ; Coll.
eimi, v. 381. chap. xxi.
onstrations of friends,
day, represented as
hose principles were,
ristians ; and who at
England. Mr. Ro-
nciples, has explicitly ristians no lesse con-
This Apology profess-ligion with the Dutch
and everie article of f Confessions of Faith,
article ;" relating to Faith in the Harmonia
into English, now con-Church in the United
the Church of England.

es, see Cotton's Power
e, Norton's Answer to agnalia, book v, Ratio
iles' Christian Union.