

BIBLIOGRAPHY
OF
THE SIEGE OF QUEBEC

---

PART I

---

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

1. Advertiser Public, London. October 18th 1759.

Many items of interest concerning Quebec.

"The brave General Wolfe was in contract of marriage to a lady of great fortune, to be consummated on his return to England."

2. Alcock (Revd. Thomas) of St. Budeaux, near Plymouth.
Relation du Bombardement et Siège de Québec; par
un Jésuite du Canada; with an English translation;
London, Yates, 1770.

3. Anderson DR.—Paper read before the Literary & Historical Society in 1870.

4. Annual Register (The) or the History of the present war, from the commencement of hostilities in 1755;
and continued through the campaigns 1756-1761,