

When we came to the foot of our mountain, they took away our shoes, and gave us in the room of them, Indian shoes, to prepare us for our Travel. Whilst we were there the English beat out a company that remained in the town, and pursued them to the river, killing and wounding many of them ; but the body of the army being alarmed, they repulsed those few English that pursued them.

I am not able to give you an account of the number of the enemy slain, but I observed after this fight, no great insulting mirth, as I expected ; and saw many wounded persons, and for several days together, they buried of their party, and one of chief note among the Macquas. The Governor of Canada told me, his army had that success with the loss, but of eleven men, three Frenchmen, one of which was the Lieutenant of the army, five Macquas, and three Indians : But after my arrival at Quebeck, I spake with an English man, who was taken the last war, and married there, and of their religion ; who told me, they lost above forty and that many were wounded : I replied, the Governor of Canada said they lost but eleven men ; he answered, it is true, that there was but eleven killed outright at the taking of the fort, but that many others were wounded, among whom was the Ensign of the French ; but said he they had a fight in the meadow,
