

Witnesses and Witness Fees—continued.

- Professional witnesses limit to number of, 245
- Provisions in tariff for payment of, 245
- Auctioneer not entitled to professional fees, 245
- Where witness not called to give professional evidence, 246
- Solicitor on record attending as witness, 246
- Professional witnesses in Master's office, 246
- Cross examination of solicitor on his affidavit, 246
- Witnesses to translate documents, 246
- Expenses paid to qualify professional witnesses not taxable, 247
- Nor the costs of making experiments, 247
- Materiality of witnesses question for officer, 247, 248
- Court will not review taxing officer's discretion, 249
- Witnesses on different issues, 250
- Taxing officer is judge of proper number of witnesses, 250
- Where same issues found for each party, 250, 251
- Where plaintiff has verdict on distinct part of claim, 251
- Attendance of witnesses where no pre-emptory list, 252
- Where witness cannot get home day trial ends, 252
- Discretion of taxing officer as to time of attendance, 252, 253
- Witness cannot recover more than tariff fees, 253
- Unless he is out of the jurisdiction, 253
- Party not bound to rely on one witness, 253
- Where party is plaintiff in two actions at A. i. z. o, 253
- Expert witnesses called in by Court, 254
- Witness fees may be taxed although evidence taken on commission, 254
- Witness travelling on a pass, 254

Writ of Summons

- Costs of serving out of jurisdiction, 255
- Serving on infant not allowed, 255
- Infant defendants in mortgage actions, 255
- Only four copies taxable, 255
- Where costs of two writs allowed, 255
- Costs of, taxable, if debt paid before service, 255