reception which greeted E. A. Macdonald in Dingman's Hall last night that he is the popular Mayoralty candidate in Ward 1. The hall was packed to the doors, and the candidate throughout his address was repeatedly cheered. Mr. George Wellings presided, and scated on the platform were A. H. Rundle, H. M. East and W. Mcliwain.

Mr. East stated that many schemes had been hatched during Mayor Shaw's term of office, and that the latest was the city of office, and that the latest was the city cierkship. He called on the electors to support Mr. Macdonald and the last named scheme would be broken. That Mr. Clarke was connected with the Toronto Street Rallway was verified by the statement knallway was verified by the statement which appeared in yesterday's World, telling of his connection with the Toronto and ling of his connection with the Toronto and york Radial Rallway Company. There were many reasons why E. F. Clarke should be defeated. The speaker detoo many millionaires while the honest poor went hungry. The latest millionaire would be E. F. Clarke if the people had manufactured too many millionaires while the honest poor went hungry. The latest millionaire would be E. F. Clarke if the people elected him. Referring to John Hallam, Mr. East said that candidate could not be elected, but with united forces Mr. Macdonald would head the poll.

When Mr. Clerke was the Mayor, it was then that the Street Railway obtained their agreement with the city. Mr. Clarke, the speaker deckared, knew that the deal was corrupt, and, although he could have ordered an investigation, he allowed it to go through. The candidate denied that, he ever asked an individual for support, but came to the electors in a gentlemanly manner.

The City Hall, he said, was filled with campires, but if he were elected be would relan it out from cellar to garret. Mr. Macdonald spoke about the extravagance urging a more rigid examination of car-Macdonald spoke about the extravagance of the city and the reforms he would make if he was put in power. He raked Ald. Hallam over the coals for that candidate's action in trying to win the fight by flinging his purse in the electors' faces.

Other speakers were A. H. Rundle, Mr. McIlwain and George Wellings.

Mr. McIlwain, in his address, said that one of Mr. Clarke's supporters, at a meeting held in Dingman's Hall on Tuesday night, refused to drink to the toast of the Queen two years ago. The speaker refused to divulge the name of the man he referred to, although frequently asked to.
