St. Petersburg, Aug. 12.—A son and heir to the Russian throne has been born. The empress and the child are doing well. The birth occurred at 12.30 p.m. The child will be christened Alexis.

The birth so greatly wished for, that of an heir to the Russian crown, occurred in the Alexandra Villa, one of a group of four small palaces in a secluded corner of the magnificent Peterhof Park.

Not having entirely satisfied themselves as to how to settle down in the house, the bees were still buzzing angrily about, and the advent of the mere man from downtown was regarded as an unwarranted intrusion.
