$650,000 HUNG UP FOR 100-DAY MEET AT HAVANA TRACK

[BY HEK.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Horse owners who have had a lean summer may not find the going so bad during the coming winter—just as, if they want to take a chance at Havana, New Orleans or La Jolla. Rich purses are being put up to attract the owners, and indications point to as successful a racing season this winter as the summer brought forth.

Hundreds of applications for stable room have been received by the management of the Havana track at Havana. The meeting opens tomorrow. Purses totaling $650,000 will be provided for the 100-day race meet.

Big Purses Offered.
The principal event at the Havana opening will be the Thanksgiving handicap, with a purse of $3,000. The program for the rest of the season provides for many stake events. Daily races will provide for purses ranging from $500 to $1,500, and no race will be run for a purse of less value than $700. The stake races include: Grand Prix of Cuba and the Cuban Derby, $15,000; Grand National handicap, Cuban stakes, for native-born horses, purses of $10,000; President Memorial handicap, Independence handicap, purses of $5,000; Cuba championship, for 2-year-olds; Christmas handicap, Cuban Club handicap, purses of $3,000; the Morris Castle handicap, the Caribbean stake and the Cuban-American handicap, purses of $2,500; the Mariano handicap and the Cuban juvenile stakes, purses of $2,000.

Two tracks will be operated at New Orleans, the Fair Grounds and Jefferson Park.

Sky Is the Limit.
Unrestricted betting will be in vogue at Havana and La Jolla. In Havana the money is handled by bookmakers and the pari-mutuel machines. The bookies adopt the old style betting which was in vogue in America, that of chalked up odds on blackboards, the handing out of tickets, and the payment after each race, the Cuban Government receives a certain percentage from the machines.

In New Orleans stakeholders are permitted to handle money wagers. They are not employed by the layers. The latter quote the odds orally, and hire clerks to get the business done. La Jolla will be run wide open—books, mutuels and various gambling games. The track is just across the California boundary line, and is operated by James W. Coffroth, former boxing promoter.

The racing season in the east was the most successful ever held. The outstanding feature of the year's racing, however, was the great performance of Man o' War. His performance easily stamps him the best of all.

Toronto and Argos Ordered To Replay Game

Protest Over An Earned Or Unearned Touchdown Allowed.

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—The Dominion rugby championship game between University of Toronto, and the winners of the Argonaut-Toronto game of last Saturday, will not be played on the coming Saturday. The Argonaut-Toronto game is to be replayed, in part, on that date. This decision was reached to-night. A committee composed of A. E. Barr, W. A. Hewitt and Dr. W. B. Hendry, all past-presidents of Canadian Rugby Union, to whom Toronto's protest was handed over after Hugh Gail, W. C. Foulds and John Degruy, who had wrestled with the question for three hours this afternoon, had failed to find a solution, at first agreed that the last twenty-five minutes of the game should be replayed tomorrow, commencing with the score standing two all. Argonauts' representatives objected to the details of this plan. They pointed out that with twenty-five minutes to play in the game last Saturday the score was not two all, but that that stage was not reached until only twenty minutes remained to play. The proposal of the committee also involved scrapping from Argonauts' fifteen-yard mark, but Argos contended that the kick was blocked at the 35-yard mark. Finally, it was agreed that play should be resumed with the commencement of the last half, with the score standing two to nothing in favor of Argonauts. Varsity Stadium is in bad condition, and the game will therefore be played at Rosedale Field with no gate. Instead of tomorrow, Saturday afternoon was named for the date. It is now a question whether Varsity will be prepared to play in the finals since a postponement of another week is involved.

Toronto's protest hinged upon the question whether a try made by them in the third quarter was an earned or an unearned try. On this point no ruling was made.

Rival Factions May Put Two Junior O.H.A. Outfits in London

Oriente Hold Meeting Yesterday and Insurgents Submit "Slate" To Them—When Slate Turned Down, Rebels Spring News of Meeting Monday Night.

[By C. S. G.]

A week ago London didn't have much prospects of even junior hockey this winter. In the last 24 hours a plethora of hockey, junior O. H. A. especially, has come into existence, and breathings and mutterings of a hockey war that will make the recent baseball war look as poetic as Gabrielle D'Annunzio's macaroni dish in Fiume are in the air.

At a general meeting last week, at which the general hockey situation was aired, it was tacitly understood that the Orient Amateur Athletic Association would enter a junior team and carry on as during last year.

The O. A. A. A. was one of the prime-movers for the establishment of a hockey board of control for London, but when it was pointed out by the rest of the meeting last week that they should run the juniors, they asked that they might submit their books to the board at the end of the season, or refer to them in disputes. And it was left at that.

Now insurgents appear on the scene thick, like a Mexican painting, and are promising dire things for the Orient A. A. A. Submit Slate To Orient Meeting.

The slate submitted by the insurgents to the Orient officials before the meeting yesterday noon differs slightly from that elected at their meeting some fourteen hours before that.

But why submit a slate to the Orient meeting when they had already formed a junior hockey club, nameless as it is, almost half a day previous?

If they intended to play for Orients they should have made known their wishes, and if these were not met, then they were free to do what they liked—play or not play.

Instead of this, though, they run part way with the bounds, then, when they find their "slate" is not in that pack they show up the pack they dealt the night before.

There are "niggers in the fence," but they are white-washed. I prefer not to turn the hose on them and show 'em up. Gentle reader, it is left with you.

ON ONE HAND—

Ye Editor's Note.—This press was not represented at this meeting, but was aware of it in advance. The copy was received last night.

A large meeting, including last year's officers, representatives from the curling rink and well-known hockey players, including "Goldie" Procter and Roy McKay, was held at the Tecumseh House at noon yesterday by the Orient Amateur Athletic Association.

The successful season of 1919-20 was discussed, and were also the prospects of the coming one. The same satisfactory arrangements as prevailed last year were renewed with the London Curling Club, and it was decided to use the same scale of prices: General admission, 35 cents, including war tax, and reserved seats at 25 cents and 50 cents. If the team should go into the semi-finals the general admission would be raised to 50 cents.

During the meeting a communication from some of the players of last year's team was read, naming a slate of officers under whom they wished to play. As only two of the signers of the communication were eligible this year and several of the officers named did not find favor with the meeting, the "slate" was not elected.

Officers for Coming Year.
Honorary President—Wm. Moore, H. A. Stevenson, M.D., M.P.
President—Dave Wright
First Vice-President—W. K. Parkinson

Second Vice-President—H. Downs
Secretary-Treasurer—H. Doidge, Assistant—H. Shillington
Executive—W. Purdon, J. Fraser, B. Jones, W. Johnson, E. Logan, J. Burgess

Mr. Roy McKay was appointed as coach-manager, and with "Goldie" Procter will start immediately to train the young fellows.

Applications will be made to the board of hockey control to handle any protest or public grievance which may arise.

H. V. Doidge was appointed to attend the O. H. A. meeting at Toronto on December 4.

WILL TRY TO RETAIN FRANCHISE.
Quebec, Nov. 24.—Canadian Press.—A movement is on here to interest a number of businessmen in the Quebec Hockey Club and retain the franchise in the N. H. L. Meetings were held yesterday and there will be further conferences today. Several negotiations came to a head the Quebec Club will most likely be represented at the annual meeting of the N. H. L. in Toronto on Saturday.

WILL REACH DECISION TODAY.
Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Up to a late hour last night, no word had been received by the St. Brigid's General Hospital for the play-off against Hamilton for the Dominion Intermediate title. Efforts were made to get in touch with Hugh Gail, but they were unsuccessful. Some decision about the match will likely be reached today. Gail and other Canadian Union officials have been very busy with the Toronto Argonaut dispute, which probably accounts for the delay.

AND ON THE OTHER

Ye Editor's Note.—The press was not represented at this meeting; had not heard of it, and received the copy for the following account of the meeting, a door's slam after the one to the left was handed in.

A hockey meeting was held Monday evening, at which it was decided to enter a Junior O. H. A. team for London. Most of last year's players were present, and gave each individual player a few words of encouragement.

The retiring president, Mr. C. L. Griffin, who acted as chairman, reviewed the athletic body's activities for the year, stating that although the association was well for its first year, still with the united co-operation of all the players, the athletic body would as surely be a better success in 1921. He wished to thank Miss McGuffin and Mr. R. W. Swazey for looking after the social end of affairs so well. Mr. J. W. Peart, the retiring secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, reviewing the secretarial end of affairs, and in the absence of the treasurer, Mr. T. P. Johnston, read the financial statement for the year, stating that the small deficit incurred was counteracted by the enthusiasm displayed. The following officers were elected for 1921. Honorary president, T. W. MacFarland; honorary vice-presidents, Messrs. Vinkes, Mitchell, Pocock; president, E. V. Buchanan; vice-president, J. W. Peart; secretary, G. W. Ely; treasurer, T. P. Johnston; executive, Messrs. Buchanan, Peart, Ely and Johnston; social committee, Messrs. Kathleen McGuffin, Emma Grant and Mr. W. F. Harper.

The football players receiving medals were: Alf. Whitworth, W. Hunt, C. Dennis, A. Ince, J. Smith, J. Short, W. E. Swazey, J. Green, A. R. Leigh, William Bell, S. Debitom, D. Barrett, R. Peart, T. Hodgkinson.

Mr. William Bailey, who managed the Public Utilities Association football team during the early part of last summer, has returned from his trip to the old land. All the soccerites in London are pleased to see "Bill" back, and look forward to his taking an active part in football.
