

CASUALTIES SHOW CANADIANS IN DRIVE

Thirty-Eight Names of Toronto Men in Latest List.

ELEVEN ARE KILLED

Two Die of Wounds and One From Sickness.

It was announced recently that several Canadian divisions had been moved to participate in the Somme offensive. Apparently the men have been engaged as the heavier casualty list of yesterday would indicate. The latest list contains the names of 38 men who went overseas from Toronto, the majority of those named having left last March. Eleven have been killed, two have died of wounds, one has died of sickness, one is dead in a German prison camp, one is seriously ill and 22 are wounded.

Pte. James Tomlinson, 189 John street, is reported killed in action. He enlisted last fall with the 74th Battalion and went overseas in March. In England he was transferred to a unit at the front and had been in the trenches about three months.

Pte. W. G. Rankin, Keele street, was killed while sleeping by the bursting of a bomb dropped on his hut by an enemy aeroplane. At the time of his death he was just 17 years old.

Pte. A. Villerton, 151 Bathurst street, has been killed in action. He went overseas with the 74th Battalion, being later transferred to a unit at the front. He was of English birth, 24 years of age and has one brother in Toronto.

Pte. H. K. Patterson, who was married in Toronto five weeks before he went overseas with the 83rd Battalion, is reported killed in action. In England he was transferred to a C.M.R. unit and reached the trenches in June. He was formerly employed as an electrician.

Pte. T. Crawford, 78 Argyle street, has been killed in action. He was of Scotch birth and enlisted in Toronto with the 74th Battalion. He has two brothers in the army, one at present in an English hospital suffering from wounds.

Pte. J. T. Rynehart, 353 Euclid avenue, is officially reported to have been killed in action on Aug. 12. He was 19 years of age and served at the front about two months. He went overseas with the 74th Battalion, but was transferred. He has a brother with the 20th Battalion.

Pte. H. T. Church, who left Toronto with the machine gun section of the 81st Battalion, has been killed. He had no previous military experience before he enlisted and his next of kin live in England.

Pte. W. J. Hunt, 75 Pape avenue, who enlisted with the 74th Battalion, has been killed. He reached England in April of this year. He was a native of England, where his mother is living.

Pte. W. J. Simpson, 333 Perth avenue, has been admitted to the hospital at Boulogne suffering from severe wounds in the shoulder and chest. He enlisted a year ago and has been in the trenches two months. He was a machinist by trade and was employed with the G.T.R.

Pte. G. Russell, 878 Palmerston avenue, has been wounded and is at the hospital at Wimereux. He is 18 years of age and is a native of Toronto. He enlisted last July with the 3rd University Company and has been at the firing line two months.

Pte. G. H. Hill, 384 1-2 Sumach street, has been wounded in the left arm and cheek. He enlisted with the 70th Battalion in London and has been at the front several months. This is the first time that he has been wounded.

Driver E. J. Maddock, 102 Brooklyn avenue, has been wounded in the forearm, but his condition is not serious. He is a lithographer by trade and was working at Ottawa when the war broke out and he enlisted there.

Pte. W. Maddeaux, whose wife lives at 113 Broadview avenue, is reported wounded in the eye with shrapnel and has been admitted to No. 13 Station hospital. He is one of four brothers serving at the front, one brother being killed two years ago.

Pte. Victor Sale, whose next of kin lives at 122 Leslie street, has been wounded. He enlisted last fall with the 74th Battalion. He is 20 years old and unmarried.

Sapper Miller, whose wife lives at 84 Cumberland street, had the unusual experience of being buried in his dugout four times in one week by high explosive shells and escaping unharmed. Now he is in a hospital in England suffering from pleurisy. He was thought that this aggravated his attack. Previous to enlisting he followed his trade of tinmith.
