Mrs. Thomas Noddings, 23 Harvey avenue, has been notified that her youngest brother, James A. Bruce, leading seaman, H.M.S. Poppy, was drowned in Queenstown harbor, Ireland, some weeks ago.

Mr. Bruce was 40 years of age, unmarried, and served almost 25 years in the British navy. He was in the North Sea with the grand fleet during the war and was wounded in the Mediterranean. He was recently sent to Queenstown and went ashore with a petty officer, on leave. He parted company from his companion, stating he would look for lodgings. His companion returned to his ship and nothing was heard of Mr. Bruce until his body was found floating in Queens-town harbor seven weeks afterwards.
