The deceased was 38 years old and was a daughter of the late J. W. Olive, and was well known in Yarmouth. She leaves a husband and two daughters. Rev. Messrs. Lane and Colpitts officiated. The floral offerings were unusually beautiful.—Yarmouth Light, Nov. 28.

ALD. BAXTER WILL AID THE RECORDER

He Gives His Services Gratuitously as Junior Counsel in Mooney Suit.

At a special meeting of the water and sewerage board yesterday afternoon, an offer from Ald. Baxter to act gratuitously as junior counsel to the recorder in the suit which B. Mooney & Sons are bringing against the city, was accepted. It was announced that McArthur & McVey had made a right draft on the city for $7,000, part of their claim for the return of 10 per cent held by the city on section two of the water extension. It is the duty of the board to notify the contractors that under a section of the contract the city was empowered to retain the money against possible claims on section 2 by Mooney & Sons.

R. G. Murray was heard with reference to his claim as a riparian owner at Loch Lomond. It was decided that H. G. Hunter should take levels in the locality to ascertain if the rise in the water was due to the dam at Lake Robertson. Ald. Frink occupied the chair and Ald. McDermott, Kelley, Sprout, Pickett, McGowan, Lantim, Bullock, Christie and Baxter were present with P. A. Birchou, the consulting engineer, Mr. Ilupfer, the director and common clerk.

ACADIA'S PRESIDENT

Rev. Dr. Hutchinson Talks of the Progress of the Wolfville Institution.

Rev. Dr. William B. Hutchinson, president of Acadia College, Wolfville, is in the city, the guest of R. G. Haley. Speaking of the work at the educational institution of which he is the head, he told that the fund for the science building, which was started about four years ago, by a contribution of $30,000 from John D. Rockefeller was very nearly completed, the end of December probably seeing it close. The amount is $230,000. The outlook for the university was never brighter. His visit here was largely for the purpose of getting acquainted with the people of St. John as many students attend the college from here than from any other outside of Wolfville.

On Monday evening a reception in Dr. Hutchinson's honor will be held in German street Baptist church at which members of the congregation and Baptist pastors and their wives will meet Acadia's president.

Tomorrow he will preach in some of the city Baptist churches.

DR. RUDDICK INSTALLED

Dr. R. C. Ruddick, lately appointed quarantine officer at this port to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. March is now located on Partridge Island and will commence his duties tomorrow. Yesterday he had a look over the buildings at the island in company with Dr. Seammell assistant quarantine officer.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB

W. M. Campbell Will Address the Sunday Afternoon Meeting, and J. Harry King in the Evening.

W. M. Campbell will be the speaker at the temperance meeting in the Every Day Club hall tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be an excellent musical programme. Men are specially invited.

At 8.30 in the evening there will begin a meeting at which there will be music by well known vocalists and an address on temperance by J. Harry King.

On Wednesday evening next the Rev. Charles F. Kean will address a men's meeting in the club rooms on Life in the Slums of London. Mr. Kean was formerly a co-worker with Rt. Hon. John Burns, the great English labor leader and also did mission work in East London slums. He was also a missionary among criminals. He was a spiritual adviser at no less than twenty-eight executions. His story of London slum life is absorbingly interesting.

ST. JOHN AND THE M. P. A. A.

The St. John Sun is to be commended for making an effort to have New Brunswick athletes form themselves into an amateur association. Years ago when the St. John A. A. were in existence the sister city were as strong as the St. John A. A. were in the Maritime Provinces. Of late years, however, they have done but little to assist amateur sports, declining to become members of any body, doing little but complaining. As the Sun says:

"Twice has the M. P. A. A. made the offer to New Brunswick athletes to allow N. B. A. A. to assume control of athletics in this province and to co-operate with the Maritime Provinces Association." At present, however, they cannot be blamed for not affiliating with either the C. A. A. U. or A. P. A. until the difficulty is settled.

It is a pity that the Recorder is able to use a St. John paper as a weapon in defence of the M. P. A. A. when we have so many in this city who are interested in the M. P. A. A. and who are willing to co-operate with the Maritime Provinces Association.

The Recorder might be enlightened on this question of New Brunswick union. While the fight between the A. P. A. and C. A. A. U. forms a reason for the moment why it is not advisable to form an N. B. union, the feeling of the clubs here is that where professionalism is flourishing under the eyes of the M. P. A. A. a fact in which their president himself has admitted his belief, we would be little better off with the suspension power in the hands of the Maritime Association.

Speaking generally, they have made a wretched mess of this end of the business. When the St. John A. A. were in existence and were "strong supporters" of the M. P. A. A. there was an unbroken line of pure amateurism between the two cities. One team that contents between town and town were taken part in by the residents of these towns. Now, however, and of recent years, a team that styles itself the St. John Pure Amateurs, and themselves up against a composite N. B.—N. S.—P. E. I. team, this from the hockey standpoint at least. And the way things are run, or rather running themselves, one looks to see an all-Canada combination down here. There is no reason why there should not be. As to this city's interest in M. P. A. A. affairs, as has been told many times, our experience in connection with the Montreal investigation, not to say Bryce's case, makes it impossible to state. These things, however, were not within the time of the Sun man.

WEDDINGS

McAllister-Haley

A quiet wedding took place Thursday morning in Holy Trinity church when Miss Jennie Haley was married to Vernon McAllister by Rev. J. J. Walsh. Miss Nellie Lowney acted as bridesmaid. Among the presents received by the bride was a set of gold rings from Mrs. Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. McAllister, all made at 225 Chesley street.

Sullivan-Parady

Richard J. Sullivan, formerly of this city, was married on the 21st inst. to Miss Alice Parady. The ceremony was performed in St. Francis De Sales church, Waterville (Me.), by Rev. Father Kosly. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will reside in Bangor.

Carson-Sleete

At Presque Isle on Thursday, Nov. 21, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Mae Bella Sleete, of North Sydney (C. E.), and Arthur B. Carson, formerly of Columbus, Ohio. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Parker C. Manger. The bride is an attractive and highly respected young lady. The groom came to Presque Isle from St. John, and is employed with Morse & Fowler, blacksmiths. He is a young man of worth and is an exceptionally fine workman. The newly married couple will reside here and no doubt will form many warm acquaintances. They have the best wishes of all for a happy and prosperous life.—Presque Isle paper.

OBITUARY

Miss May Johnson

The news of the death of Miss May Johnson, formerly of Kings county, at Somerville (Mass.) on the 27th inst., will be heard in St. John with much regret. Her body will be brought to St. John today and the funeral will be held at Apoliqui tomorrow. Dr. McDonald, of Hallowell, and S. F. McDonald, of Hallowell, are uncles of deceased.
