of Virgil, the first three books of Cæsar's Commentaries, Mair's Introduction, the Greek Grammar, and Arithmetic as far as Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, inclusive.

The only charges are £1, to cover incidental expenses, and £2 for each class per session, to be paid on entrance.

Accommodation will be provided for Students as Boarders, the expense to each boarder averaging about 7 dollars per month. Students intending to avail themselves of this accommodation, will require to bring their own bedding. The Boarding Establishment will be under the superintendence of the Professors.

All Students must produce a Certificate of moral and religious character from the Ministers of the Congregations to which they respectively belong.

A number of Scholarships will be awarded at the commencement of the Session. The Scholarship for Students of the first year, will be conferred on those who display the greatest proficiency in the subjects of examination for matriculation, together with the First Book of Euclid. For students of previous years, the subjects of examination for Scholarships, will be the studies of former Sessions.
