

TRAINING FOR SCOUT LEADERS SOON TO BEGIN

Course Opens Next Week in Great War Veterans' Quarters

FRED CHOPPIN IS TO BE IN CHARGE

Troops and Cub Packs Will Into Work For Winter

Scouting in Saint John continues active. Last week's council fire was all that the leaders hoped it to be, and next week will see the commencement of a scout leader's winter training course. The course, which covers a period of 10 evenings, will start on November 16, and will run to November 20. A break of one week will then be made, and the course will be concluded the week of November 30 to December 4.

The Great War Veterans' hall has been secured for the staging of the course, which will be in charge of Assistant District Commissioner Fred Choppin, who will be assisted by Scoutmaster Eli Boyaner and District Secretary L. L. Johnson. Fifteen leaders will take the course, and will qualify them for the Part II A Certificate for the Canadian Girl Scout badge. It will be remembered that the first training course for leaders in this city was conducted last winter by Field Commissioner Harry Lister, when 15 of the leaders successfully completed the course and received their certificates.

ST. JAMES' PACK, NO. 19.
Last Tuesday's meeting opened at 7 o'clock sharp, with 25 Cubs in attendance, and a good programme was carried out under the direction of the A. B. M. and a Scout instructor, Dr. Choppin, who will be assisted by Scoutmaster Eli Boyaner and District Secretary L. L. Johnson. The Pack had farewell to Cubs W. Carly and H. Carter, who have gone into the Scouts. John Stinson and G. Lake have been promoted to Scouts. The Pack had farewell to Cubs W. Carly and H. Carter, who have gone into the Scouts. John Stinson and G. Lake have been promoted to Scouts.

STONE CHURCH TROOP, NO. 7.
On Monday our Troop had a most enjoyable hike, when we went to our old camping ground at Hunter's Beach. The hike was in charge of Scoutmaster Norman G. Smith, who was assisted by Assistant Scoutmaster Kenneth M. Harrison. Some of the features of the hike included passing of certain cooking tests, rope work, and a treasure hunt in which our fellows had to follow a trail of Scout woodcraft signs, and used the compass to advantage. This was most enjoyable. Our Troop chaplain, Rev. G. B. Moore, and Rev. John Unsworth accompanied us on the hike, and we greatly enjoyed their company. The Eagle Patrol has a fine totem in the form of a mounted eagle, and the Crows are determined to secure a totem to represent their patrol.

ST. GEORGE'S TROOP, NO. 21
On Thanksgiving Monday our troop took an enjoyable hike to Taylor's Island and the dykes. Many scouting games were enjoyed including a line game of rugby. At our meeting of Wednesday evening a great deal of scouting work was carried out, the troop, especially the Scouts, and the signals. At the Council Fire two debating teams were chosen, and we hope to soon have a debate with St. Jude's troop.

SUNRISE TROOP, No. 4
Troop No. 4 carried on a regular meeting last Wednesday evening, and as the scoutmaster was absent the assistant scoutmaster carried on. The programme included a line game of rugby, and a treasure hunt in which our fellows had to follow a trail of Scout woodcraft signs, and used the compass to advantage. This was most enjoyable. Our Troop chaplain, Rev. G. B. Moore, and Rev. John Unsworth accompanied us on the hike, and we greatly enjoyed their company. The Eagle Patrol has a fine totem in the form of a mounted eagle, and the Crows are determined to secure a totem to represent their patrol.

EDITH AVE. TROOP, No. 6
On Thursday November 6th, Troop No. 6 held its first regular meeting after its annual opening meeting. We were pleased to have District Scoutmaster O. J. Lawson visit us, and to hear him speak to our troop leaders and patrol leaders and seconds on their duties, and to the troop in general. Such subjects as obedience, courtesy, good turns and badge work, all of which proved very interesting. We also received several useful hints on how to carry on our troop, and to improve it.

ST. JUDE'S PACK, NO. 5.
On Monday nineteen Cubs attended an all-day hike in charge of Assistant Scoutmaster D. A. MacLennan and Scout Instructor Ronald Evans. Our Pack is strong on the idea of studying the trees and flowers and of stalking various animals, and some of the Cubs did fair to make real trackers and stalkers. One feature was the following of a trail for half a mile guided by grass and road signs. At regular intervals the Cubs were to stop and identify the plants and animals they saw. The Cubs were very interested, and the hike was a most enjoyable one. Monday being a holiday a number of the regular Troop were not present, however, several recruits were on hand, and a lively evening of games was greatly enjoyed.

TRINITY TROOP, NO. 17.
On Thursday last the Troop enjoyed a hike to Long Lake under the direction of A. S. M. Don Sutherland. On Saturday night eight of our Scouts went to East Saint John and attended a large Council Fire where they had a most enjoyable time. Monday being a holiday a number of the regular Troop were not present, however, several recruits were on hand, and a lively evening of games was greatly enjoyed.

TRINITY TROOP, NO. 17.
Wednesday evening we had a good turn out of Cubs, and a very profitable and interesting evening was spent. The new Sixers are settling down in good form, which forecasts a good season of cubbing for our Pack. We find the

LOT WHERE CITY HALL STANDS ONE TIME WAS SOLD FOR 5 SHILLINGS

Brook Once Crossed Cliff and Paddock Streets—Windmill Worked Where Beatty Stands—Early History of Paddock Family In Saint John

THE LOT on which the Saint John City Hall stands was once sold for five shillings. A brook, in olden days, ran from behind the Cathedral across Cliff and Paddock streets, and formed a pond where the kiddies skated in old time winters, at the corner of Waterloo and Paddock streets. On the Admiral Beatty Hotel site, at various times, were located a windmill, a poor house and a barracks for soldiers. These are a few features from another interesting old record from the pen of the late Ven. Archdeacon W. O. Raymond, in the local office of the Dominion Archives. It follows:

"In the early days of the last century, all the land now bounded by Coburg, Cliff, Waterloo and Union streets, with the exception of a lot or two on Waterloo street, was owned by two well-known gentlemen of Saint John, the Hon. Charles Jeffrey Peters and Dr. Adino Paddock, and the respective properties were designated as 'Peters' Hill' and 'Paddock's Field.' The lands referred to were outside the city limits of Parr Town as laid out by Paul Bedell in 1783 and formed part of the tract granted by the Government of Nova Scotia in 1785 to James Simonds and his partners, William Hazen and James White.

FIRST LOYALIST TROOPS.
"The name of Adino Paddock was a household word in Saint John in the years gone by. He was a son of Adino Paddock, Mayor of Boston, who was born in Tremont street the historic Paddock Elms. Young Dr. Adino Paddock came to Saint John early in the summer of 1783 as a surgeon in the King's American Dragoons, then commanded by Major Joshua Upham, who was later a judge of the Supreme Court in New Brunswick. The regiment was encamped on the heights back of Carleton in the month of July, 1783, and was the first body of Loyalist troops to arrive in the province. It was sent, a little later, up the river and disbanded at Prince William, some 20 miles above Fredericton. Their place of settlement was named after Prince William (after King William IV), the royal patron of the regiment.

LOT FOR FIVE SHILLINGS.
Surgeon Paddock remained in Saint John. He drew two lots in Carleton and on in Parr Town, and in 1786 he bought from Major Gilford Studholme five shillings a lot at the southeast corner of Prince William and Princess streets (50 feet front and 200 feet deep) on which the City Hall now stands. The building in which the Saint John Daily Telegraph was printed at the time of the Great Fire of 1877 stood on this lot. It was built by Dr. Adino Paddock and was for years his residence.

LAND FOR DOCTOR'S BILL.
"Dr. Paddock's practice was among the best families of the city, and his settlement of a medical bill against the estate of the Hon. William Hazen for £144 he received in 1818 a lot of land containing five and three-

Scout instructors a great help to our Pack, as they each take a Six for instruction periods, and this plan works very well.

THE KIRK PACK, NO. 9.
On Thursday our meeting was attended by nineteen boys, which included some new recruits. Cubs Frank Stewart and Wilford Rhinehart completed their First Star tests, and with three other Cubs received their First Stars with proper ceremony. The First Stars started in working for their Second Stars by practicing signalling which they find very interesting. We are still looking forward to a fine day for a hike, as our hike planned for last Friday was postponed owing to the weather.

ST. JAMES' TROOP, NO. 19.
We are glad to report that our Troop is now under way again with a new S. M. and A. S. M. At our second meeting of the season, held on Thursday evening we elected new Patrol Leaders and Seconds, also a Troop Scribe, after which we carried on an interesting meeting of scouting, including knot work, formations, and games. Our Leaders are going to take the Scout Leaders' course which commences next week, and we are looking forward to some interesting developments in our Troop after they have completed the course.

GOOD SHOT SAVES ONE FROM LIONESS
NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, Nov. 13.—Tabora is a township on the Central Railway in Tanganyika Territory. It boasts a main street, a few shops, railway sheds, a native market, a railway station, and is in the heart of a lion district where European inhabitants sleep within reach of a lion.

A district engineer recently looked out of his window in the early hours of the morning and saw a lioness pacing in front of the station. He had no rifle but he had a good voice and yelled loudly to the lioness. The animal was scared and jumped over the station fence.

Two natives who were passing met the lioness face to face, and with a stroke of her paw she felled one native to the ground, while the other made good his escape. For a few minutes the animal sat over her victim and growled. She sat one minute too long for a district superintendent of the line sent a bullet into her stomach and she jumped.

Then she charged her tormentor but a second bullet found her heart. The accurate shooting of the superintendent saved the life of the native.

Such excitements are common in Tabora. A few months ago two lions walked into the native market and helped themselves to a meat breakfast.

Weddings

Keith-Hehn.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at 3 p.m. on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hehn, at Sidersburg, Alta., when their eldest daughter, Emma Lucile, became the bride of Ward Carmel Keith.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Miller, of Pennant, Sask., brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride, who looked charming in a rust colored cut velvet gown and carrying a lovely bouquet of roses, entered the drawing room to the strains of the bridal march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Edna Hehn, sister of the bride. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom witnessed the wedding.

After the good wishes of those present were extended the company adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith left on the evening train for a short trip to Calgary. The numerous and lovely gifts testified to the popularity of the young pair.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keith, of Havelock, N. B., and previous to going west taught school in this province.

Voices Indignation Over Mother's Day

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Nov. 13.

Captain Irving O. Hay, the original of Richard Harding Davis' Captain O'Day, in the "Soldier of Fortune," voiced his indignation against Mother's Day and similar sentimental observances in an address here before the Kiwanis Club yesterday.

"We allow Greek flower vendors to sell carnations worth a nickel for 80 cents," he said. "What the country really needs is to get away from all this silly stuff and get back to Sunday morning church services, the flag and the home."

Dry Enforcement Is Failure In Russia

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Prohibition was abandoned in Russia after a 10-year trial because the government found it impossible to enforce it, according to Captain Paxton Hibben, executive secretary of the American Committee for the relief of Russian children.

Captain Hibben has just returned from Russia. "Home-brewers," not "bootleggers," caused the downfall of prohibition in the land of Bolshevism, he said. "There never was such open violation of prohibition in Russia as there is in New York," he added.

N. S. Boy, 4, Killed In Fall From Cliff

CANNING, N. S., Nov. 13.—Harold MacDonald, aged four, was killed as his home at Scott's Bay, near here, this afternoon when, it is presumed, he fell off a cliff on which he and his older brother had been playing a short while previously. Lawrence, the older boy, ran home to have some splinters removed from his finger, returning a short while later to find part of the cliff fallen away and his little brother's lifeless body standing erect at the foot of the cliff pinioned in by a rock weighing about 300 pounds.
