Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 7.—Fire broke out in Gallagher Bros' stable this morning and for a time threatened the upper part of the town. They were all saved, as well as wagons, harness and other material. Brad Walker, who lived nearby, lost all his household effects. A very large quantity of hay and grain was destroyed. ## PROHIBITION IN HALIFAX.

To the Editor of the Times:
Sir—A recent flaring advertisement in the columns of the Standard and Globe quoting certain statements of the Rev. Harold T. Roe to show that prohibition in Halifax was a failure is pretty effectively answered in the following telegram received by the subscriber this morning and which I trust you will publish:

"J. Willard Smith,
"Saint John, N. B.,
"No sane man here would think of returning to old conditions. Mature judgment, leading business men is that city greatly profited by prohibition. Chief of police says would not go back to prohibition days with respect to drunkenness. Simply no comparison. He knows."
"(Signed) P. F. MORIARTY."

I might add that Mr. Moriarty is the head of the Y. M. C. A. in Halifax and a man whose judgment is unquestioned. I have no doubt any or all of the claims which appear as anti-prohibition advertisements can be as effectively refuted.

Thanking you for the space so kindly given, I am

Yours respectfully,
J. WILLARD SMITH.
