A STRANGER'S
SPLENDID STRUGGLE

GOD'S CRUCIBLE tells the story of a young stranger within our gates who fought bravely to overcome the countless obstacles that confronted him, and who won his fight.

Sometimes the story is tragic, — grimly so; sometimes it is lightened by humor that cannot fail to bring a laugh; always it is fascinating, for it probes the human heart to its depths.

The superlative direction of Henry MacRae plus a story which for action and appeal has never been surpassed and a true all-star cast make "God's Crucible" one of the biggest screen successes of this or any other season.

The locale of "God's Crucible" is laid amid the grandeur of the snow-capped Canadian Rockies where practically all of the action transpires. The picture will prove not only entertainment of the very highest order, but a real treat to the eye as well. It is the screen version of Ralph Connor's novel, "The Foreigner" and is enacted by an all-artist cast.

Ralph Connor, which is the pen name of the Reverend Dr. C. W. Gordon, wrote a very large number of novels, prominent among them "The Sky Pilot," "Black Rock," "The Prospector," "Cameron of the Royal Mounted" and "The Foreigner."

"The Foreigner" was made into a picture by Director MacRae under its new title, "God's Crucible."
