Philadelphia, June 1.—The fourth entry in the race for the Philadelphia Gold Challenge Cup on June 8 will be Garnett Gilmore of the Bachelors Barge Club, making two Quaker City oarsmen who will compete.

From the starting point to the half way mark, the race was of the closest, the three oarsmen approaching the point nearly abreast and apparently all in good shape.

Rooney was the first to crack. Slowly but surely the other two went ahead. Then it was Durman who was weakened, and it was Gilmore who held the lead.

RAIN HELPS IN SOME SECTIONS

Central and Southern Parts of Province Still Fear Forest Fire Menace.

Fredericton, N. B., June 2.—Rain, which in some places continued heavily without interruption for three hours, but which elsewhere was only a relief from the heavy showers, occurred throughout the northern counties of New Brunswick last night and has temporarily relieved the forest fire menace in that section.

BRITAIN TO PAY BIG INTEREST ON THE U. S. DEBT

London, June 2.—The government has completed arrangements to pay, during the coming fall, interest amounting to twenty-five million pounds on the British debt to the U. S.

It has not yet been decided whether or not a special mission will be sent to Washington to discuss the debt with the U. S. government.

BUDGET DEBATE IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, June 2.—(Canadian Press.)—Yesterday in the Commons the premier intimated that there would be no further discussion on the St. Lawrence water-way in the house this session.

R. K. Anderson, (Con.) member for Halifax, predicted that if the country was consulted on the question of reciprocity with the U. S., the proposal would be rejected.

Free trade had never been a part of the Liberal platform, said Mr. Macdonald, Liberal member for Brantford, and it was never expected that it would be.

The prime minister declared that the government was not in favour of a tariff which would give the country a sufficient revenue to run the country, and no more.

T. L. Church, (Con.) North Toronto, declared that the Conservatives were prepared to support the proposal.
