MINSTREL SHOW

A GREAT SUCCESS

St. Joseph's Y. M. S. Demonstrate Ability as Entertainers Before Large Audience

The minstrel show given last evening in St. Malachi's Hall, Sydney street, under the auspices of the Y. M. S. of St.
Joseph, proved distinctly successful and enjoyable. The programme was most entertaining to the large audience assembled and reflected credit upon those taking part as well as upon M. F. Kelly, under whose capable direction the show was given. Aside from the minstrel circle, the other numbers were well received.
Thomas McPartland in banjo selections and comic songs received many encores, while Messrs W. J. Devenne and Jas. C.
Bond in a comic rapid-fire dialogue added to their laurels already won as comedians of ability. Joseph O'Brien in step-dancing was appreciated, while an after-piece "The Baseball Crank" provided more fun.

The minstrel circle, with Wilfred Mc-Gulley as interloper; R. Garnett and F. Jennings, as bones; and H. McHugh and W. Brophy, as tambors, provided no end of interest and amusement. The individual selections by the minstrels were well received, not to mention the jokes and humorous dialogue of the "end men."

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

It is a glad and proper thing to be the originator of a proved success. The article that has caught on to the public taste may be less than your finger nail, or bigger than your whole body—size doesn't count—nothing really counts but this: That you have worked your way to the discovery of a commodity that supplies a known and felt want, and that the great wide-eyed public have unanimously taken up your new production and made it a success.

It has been exactly like that with H.
P. Sauce. The delicious relish, made by the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the largest firm of malt vinegar brewers in the world, has been an unqualified success from the first day of its distribution until now.

AMUSEMENTS

UNIQUE

Our Mutual Girl at Unique Makes Many New Friends—Serial Fashion Story Started Yesterday.

The first reel of Our Mutual Girl series was shown at the Unique Theatre yesterday, serving to introduce dainty Miss Norma Phillips and depicting the first of her adventures in the city of New York. Our Mutual Girl is to be a fashion and adventure subject, so that both sexes will become enamored with Miss Phillips. The series will be illustrative and will afford a splendid opportunity for the ladies to see the advanced Parisian styles in hats and gowns. Along with the dress and adventure feature Our Mutual Girl is to have an opportunity of meeting several celebrities in every walk of life and appear with them in the pictures. Under the chaperonage of her "rich New York auntie" she will visit interesting places throughout the world; she will meet famous people, she will wear the very latest from the hands of Dame Fashion, and with all this will be coupled a deep story of mystery. The first installment shown at the Unique yesterday depicted the Mutual Girl's arrival in New York and her visit to Lucille's Fashion Parlors. The chapter next week will deal with Margaret's meeting with the countess and the arrival of her country sweetheart in New York. The other pictures on yesterday's programme were a contrast to Our Mutual Girl, and gave much pleasure.

BIG SHOP-LIFTING POCKET

Was Concealed in Dress of Aged Woman, Who Had Excited Pity of All—

Boston, April 16.—When a woman was caught in a South End small department store stealing, because of her age—88—the floor walker and others were inclined to let her go, saying it was too bad to arrest the poor woman. She gave her name as Nellie Taylor, saying she lived in Somerville and that she did not know what she was doing.

They were just about to let her go when Policeman Marsh walked in. She pleaded with him not to be locked up, saying she was an honest woman. But Marsh noticed a bulging in her skirt.
She was taken to a police station and searched by a matron, who discovered one of the strongest and best all-round shoplifting pockets ever seen by the police.
The pocket ran from hip to hip, buttoned at either side. It was so deep that it extended to a few inches above her button shoes. There was found in this pocket about 80 yards of lace.

She was hardly booked when she declared she wanted to be bailed out.
When the bail commissioner arrived she said she would furnish cash bail no matter how much. It was $100 and she put it up, remarking that if it was $1,000 she could produce it just the same.

In court when her name was called she was not there. When the session closed she was finally defaulted and a warrant issued for her arrest.

Policeman Marsh looked the woman up at headquarters and her picture was found in the Rogues' Gallery under the name of Lena Knadie. It was stated in court that the woman was arrested about two years ago charged with shoplifting and at the time lived in Roxbury. She does not live at the address she gave in Somerville.

Assisted by a trolley car, Alexander Morton moved a large house from one location to another in South Norwalk, Conn., in less than 80 minutes. The city authorities gave him only that much time in which to do it, and, with the aid of a car and a large gang of men with rollers, the trick was done.
