

Waterbury & Rising "Special"

For Women

$3.00, $4.00 and $4.50

Styles For Fall and Winter in Stock Now!

The embodiment of Fashion, Fit, and Comfort. Shoes that fit Do Not make the feet "look big" but tight shoes are noticeable and unnecessary. The Waterbury & Rising "Special" are perfect fitters. All leathers. Newest styles.

Waterbury & Rising

King St. Main St. Union St.

KODAKS BROWNIES

And Photographic Supplies, At

S. H. HAWKER'S, Prescription Pharmacy, Cor. Paradise Road and Main St. THE TRANSFER CORNER

Are You Interested in Furs?

Read What Thomas Says!

From Season to Season, We Have Proved Beyond Dispute That Our Prices Are at Least 10 per cent. Lower Than Our Nearest Competitor. We Ask You to Make Comparison. See The Prices Others Ask. Then See Ours. If You Are at all Interested We Invite You to Inspect Our Stock. Even if You Have No Intention of Buying Now, This INVITATION is To You and Your Friends.

Ladies' Muskrat Raglans, No. 1, $95.00
Ladies' Fur Lined Raglans, $45.00 up
Russian Pony Coats, $45.00 to $75.00
Electric Seal Coats, $60.00 to $85.00
Mink Neck Furs, $13.50 to $125.00

Children's Furs a Specialty

F. S. THOMAS, FASHIONABLE FURRIER
539 and 545 Main Street

"A GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES"

Have You Seen The New Overcoat Styles?

To You—Whether you are a valued customer, or a man who has never entered our store—we extend an urgent invitation to call and see the new Winter Overcoat Styles. Since we have sold ready-tailored clothes we have never shown so representative a line so early in the season. And never, we believe, so fine a line of Overcoats—models of elegance, style and genuine worth.

Distinctive Chesterfields, warm Ulsters (single and double-breasted), the new Convertible Collar Overcoats, and other styles in fabrics that are sure to give long service and retain their original elegance.

The prices range from $9 to $30. Fall Overcoats are also here, with Waterproof Coats, Suits, Vests and Trousers. In fact a full line of the good clothing demanded by men who recognize and demand true quality.

Permit us to repeat our invitation—"Call on us" It is a pleasure to show the new lines whether we sell or not.

GILMOUR'S 68 King Street, Tailoring and Clothing
Sole Agency 20th Century Brand Clothing

Don't Forget The Dominion Exhibition, Sept. 5 to 15, and also bear in mind that you can make your expense for your trip by attending our

SLAUGHTER SALE OF Furniture and Household Furnishings

We will just mention a few of our lines to give you an idea of our very low prices.

5-Piece Parlor Suites, heavy frames, covered in good velours, $18.75. Others to $70.00.

Lounges, with hardwood frames, covered in damask, only $4.70.

3-Piece Bedroom Suites, consisting of a sofa, a commode, and enameled brass trimmed bed, only $12.50.

We also offer to the public, a complete line of high class and medium furniture at very lowest prices.

An inspection of our stock is cordially extended to the public at large.

Above sale will continue only till September 15.

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE.
J. MARCUS
Main 1273, 30 Dock Street

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

A DARK BLOUSE TO MATCH THE FALL STREET SUIT
The blouse en suite is now an established which matches the dark green of the cloth of the feminine wardrobe and suit. Straps of green satin, with covered buttons to match, form an effective contrast with the green of the blouse. The blouse pictured is of gray chiffon, and the skirt is of green and blue, with an adjustable stock of the tones, the general effect being green, same material.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

HAS she been in your guest room at all this summer—the guest non grata? If you have any guest room to put her in I suspect she has, for she goes everywhere in the course of the season.

Well, there are several varieties of her. Here are a few that you may recognize. You invite her for the week of August 14—that being the only week in which you can conveniently entertain her. She accepts with pleasure, making the slight proviso that, as it suits her plans better, she will come the next week instead—she is sure you won't mind because you aren't to put yourself out for her, and anyway you are always so accommodating.

A more virulent variety goes even farther than this, and not only dates her invitation but extends it to herself—at least in its definite form. You have remarked, perhaps, in an unguarded moment that you would like to have her come, and see you if she is ever in your part of the country, and your unwelcome is duly brushed away. You get a note saying that she will be staying right near your summer home next week, and she brings more than half the little things she needs. All through her stay you patiently—impatiently—supply her with stamps, writing paper, fountain pen, rubbers, umbrella, sewing material and so many other incidentals.

She is late to breakfast and fails to air her room properly. She attempts usually this variety is relative—in the most kindly but most exasperating way to make her home on the pattern of her.

You must try the breakfast food and the brand of hair and the peculiarly efficacious cleaning powder that are used in her home. Your maid must boil the clothes the way her maid does. You must give your children the medicine that helps her. You must make your shirtwaist by the pattern that she likes so much.

Did I say she was a variety of the "guest non grata"? Take it back. She belongs to a class by herself.

And since my Latin fails me I don't know the Latin superlative of "non grata," I'll just call it "most non grata."

She sings or plays beautifully and you have counted on enjoying her talent, but she assures you blantly that she left her music at home, and can't sing or play a note without it.

She "never eats" this or that. Of course she insists that you are not to get anything special for her, but of course you do.

She is late to breakfast and fails to air her room properly. She attempts usually this variety is relative—in the most kindly but most exasperating way to make her home on the pattern of her.

You must try the breakfast food and the brand of hair and the peculiarly efficacious cleaning powder that are used in her home. Your maid must boil the clothes the way her maid does. You must give your children the medicine that helps her. You must make your shirtwaist by the pattern that she likes so much.

Did I say she was a variety of the "guest non grata"? Take it back. She belongs to a class by herself.

And since my Latin fails me I don't know the Latin superlative of "non grata," I'll just call it "most non grata."

She sings or plays beautifully and you have counted on enjoying her talent, but she assures you blantly that she left her music at home, and can't sing or play a note without it.

She "never eats" this or that. Of course she insists that you are not to get anything special for her, but of course you do.

She is late to breakfast and fails to air her room properly. She attempts usually this variety is relative—in the most kindly but most exasperating way to make her home on the pattern of her.

You must try the breakfast food and the brand of hair and the peculiarly efficacious cleaning powder that are used in her home. Your maid must boil the clothes the way her maid does. You must give your children the medicine that helps her. You must make your shirtwaist by the pattern that she likes so much.

Did I say she was a variety of the "guest non grata"? Take it back. She belongs to a class by herself.

And since my Latin fails me I don't know the Latin superlative of "non grata," I'll just call it "most non grata."

She sings or plays beautifully and you have counted on enjoying her talent, but she assures you blantly that she left her music at home, and can't sing or play a note without it.

She "never eats" this or that. Of course she insists that you are not to get anything special for her, but of course you do.

She is late to breakfast and fails to air her room properly. She attempts usually this variety is relative—in the most kindly but most exasperating way to make her home on the pattern of her.

You must try the breakfast food and the brand of hair and the peculiarly efficacious cleaning powder that are used in her home. Your maid must boil the clothes the way her maid does. You must give your children the medicine that helps her. You must make your shirtwaist by the pattern that she likes so much.

Did I say she was a variety of the "guest non grata"? Take it back. She belongs to a class by herself.

And since my Latin fails me I don't know the Latin superlative of "non grata," I'll just call it "most non grata."

She sings or plays beautifully and you have counted on enjoying her talent, but she assures you blantly that she left her music at home, and can't sing or play a note without it.

THE WAY TO PLAN TOWNS TO HELP WORKING CLASS

Henry Vivian, M.P., of Birkenhead, England, Gives Instructive Address Before Delegates

(Toronto World.)

Town planning and town housing was the subject of a most interesting address delivered by Henry Vivian, M. P. for Birkenhead, England, before the Union of Canadian Municipalities.

Mayor Greary was so impressed by the speaker's knowledge of municipal problems that he invited him to give the city three or four days of his time in October, which Mr. Vivian will do.

Proper regulation in regard to the laying out of a city to meet future requirements he believed to be one of the most important movements in England at the present time, and to illustrate the effect of the movement he contrasted the physical condition of the school children living in the congested slums of Liverpool and those residing in Port Sunlight, a city of model homes for the working class.

"Such a difference in conditions and surroundings," he said, "has produced almost a different creature."

On account of his interest in the movement he had come to Canada on an invitation from Earl Grey, to give some useful information in planning the opening of new streets and the housing of the people so as to meet the demands of health and beauty.

Actual Experience

He himself had been one of the committee which investigated the home life of some 1,400 children in Edinburgh and in Liverpool. They divided the city into three grades, examining first the conditions of the well-to-do, the middle class and those living in one and two-roomed houses. It was the last-mentioned class which he compared with the sons and daughters of the working class.

Light, many of whom at fourteen years of age were as much as five inches taller and thirty pounds heavier than the Liverpool children.

The speaker cited the report of the medical health officer of Finlbury, a suburb of London, which showed that the death rate in a one-roomed house was 40 per thousand in two-roomed, 20 per thousand; three-roomed, 15 and in four-roomed eight or ten per thousand of population.

"If England is to hold her place in the great national rivalry now developing," continued Mr. Vivian, "something has to be done in order to check the great demoralizing influence in the people's life shown by these figures."

Nearly every English municipality was now taking advantage of the legislation given them under the act and preparing plans for a more substantial development.

The speaker described the laying out of what he termed "garden cities," some fifteen or sixteen in number. These are designed for the accommodation of ten to thirty thousand people and the houses are built and the town planned along with the parks and playgrounds.

Ample accommodation is afforded in the homes with large breathing spaces in the parks and playgrounds. The main arteries are wide, and the streets are so much traveled are narrower, and minor streets very narrow, much of the space on the narrow streets being taken up by garden spaces.

Partnership Tenants

"The partnership tenants movement," said Mr. Vivian, "aims at giving the tenant a number of estates outside of the great cities, and providing actual demonstrations in the manner already mentioned. The movement is hardly five years old and already $4,000,000

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain cure for all kinds of skin diseases, such as eczema, psoriasis, and other eruptions. It is made of the finest oils and is applied to the affected part. It is sold by all druggists.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

When a box of sardines is opened, it should be drained of all oil possible, and the little fish turned out and sprinkled with lemon juice.

It's awful hard for some people to be both good and interesting.

Children delight in the exquisite flavor of Cowan's Perfection Cocoa.

Mothers know that Cowan's Perfection Cocoa is the ideal beverage for their growing children.

The choicest cocoa in the world—for young and old—for breakfast, luncheon and tea.

Your grocer is sure to have COWAN'S.

THE COWAN CO., LIMITED, TORONTO.

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

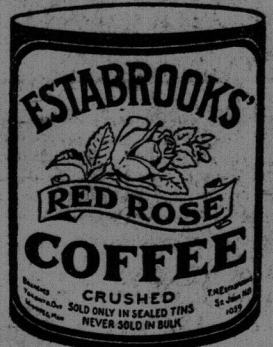

150

150

The Distinctive Flavor

of Estabrooks' Red Rose Coffee is the true mark of fine quality; but everything pertaining to this coffee denotes its superiority.

It is strictly pure, and does not contain a particle of chicory nor any other adulterant. It is packed in air-tight tins the same day it is roasted so its full flavor, fragrance and strength are retained.

Estabrooks' Coffee for breakfast and Red Rose Tea for other meals.

Estabrooks' RED ROSE Coffee

Try it for Breakfast To-morrow

EMERY BROS., WHOLESALE CONFECTIONERS

It will pay you to see our stock before buying elsewhere. Try a sample order—Goods pure—Assortment unequalled—Prices right—Shipments prompt. We are agents for the famous Valona-Marchioney Ice Cream Cones and Wafers. The best made.

THE REASON WHY

You don't take sauce? Perhaps not, but if you look for the reason why, you will find it in the fact that the word "sauce" suggests to your mind a thin, dark, hot-tasting fluid, which, if taken at dinner, runs all over the plate, saturates the vegetables, and eventually leaves a disagreeable burning sensation in the mouth. No wonder that under these circumstances you do not take sauce—but, change the circumstances, and the taste will probably change with it.

A new sauce has been introduced by the Midland Vinegar Company of England, which is known as H. P. Sauce, and is quite different from the old-fashioned sauce referred to.

H. P. Sauce has proved an immediate success, and is now used by those who who prefer it over the old sauce. It is prepared by blending together the choicest Oriental fruits and spices with pure malt vinegar. The resulting sauce is a pure, fresh, fruity sauce, which, if poured on the side of the plate, can be eaten with the meat like mustard.

H. P. Sauce is also used very extensively in the kitchen, for housekeepers have discovered that old and familiar dishes of which everyone has grown tired become tempting and delicious when enriched and salted with H. P.

All family grocers are selling H. P. Sauce. Of course its success has been many imitations, but if you ask for H. P. and see that these letters appear on each label, you will preclude the possibility of disappointment.

PROFESSIONAL ADVICE

The Housewife—I declare, I don't know what we are to do when round steak costs as much as porterhouse. It is outrageous. The Marketman—Yes, mum.

The Housewife—What's a body going to do if this keeps on?

The Marketman—I would advise you, mum, that bein' the case, to eat porterhouse.

Charles C. Virts of Wexford, Adams county, Pa., has a hog that lived for 22 days buried under a load of hay in a haystack. The hog finally got free by eating a passage for itself through the hay.

Mrs. Everett Parker of Richmond, Ind., 28 years old, is said to be the youngest grandmother. Her great-grandmother is 90 years old.

A delicious accompaniment to a fish course is small tomatoes, scooped out and filled with grated cucumbers, well seasoned. Serve ice cold.

The number of active volcanoes in the world is about 350.

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150

150