PREMIER SPEAKS OF
N. B. PUBLIC WORKS

Talks Also of Grand Falls—
Nothing on Cabinet
Reorganization.

Premier Veniot, in Saint John today, asked about the work of his own department of public works, said that an expenditure of between $700,000 and $800,000 on permanent and ordinary bridges was planned, with about $350,000 for main trunk roads, and between $300,000 and $350,000 on secondary, branch and by-roads. He said that in the vicinity of 50 to 60 permanent new bridges would be built this year, for which tenders were being issued daily. In addition, work on 20 started last year will be completed this year. Included in the programme are the Tyne Creek bridge and the Mac's Bay bridge in Saint John county. The Premier also said that new work would be undertaken this year on the Loch Lomond road, this being a continuation of last year's work.

GRAND FALLS

Regarding the Grand Falls project, Hon. Dr. Veniot said he would leave for Montreal on May 13 to attend the session of the International Joint Waterways Commission, which will meet in Montreal on May 15 to consider the application of the province relative to the Grand Falls development. While in Montreal, the Premier said he would meet representatives of the International Pulp and Paper Company with respect to a settlement of the company's claim to property at Grand Falls. He declared that Hon. J. E. Michaud, Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, chairman of the N. B. Electric Power Commission, J. D. P. Lewin, solicitor, and probably S. R. Weston, chief engineer, would also go to Montreal. G. C. Acres, Niagara Falls, consulting engineer of the commission, also will attend.

Asked regarding the personnel of the new Power Commission, Premier Veniot said he had no statement to make at present. Premier Veniot also declined to discuss matters in connection with the coming provincial elections and also regarding cabinet re-organization. Hon. Dr. Veniot will remain in the city tomorrow and then return to his home in Bathurst.

Irish Language Not
Popular in Army

LONDON, May 7.—The Morning Post's Dublin correspondent says that the Irish language is unpopular in the Free State army, was revealed yesterday in evidence given before the Gaeltacht commission. Col. P. O'Connor commanding what is known as the "Irish Speaking Battalion," testified that the battalion was much below strength, and said there was some feeling against the language on the part of some of the officers.

IN MEMORIAM

CUNNINGHAM—In sad and sacred memory of my dear husband, George Cunningham, who was drowned May 7, 1923. Gone but not forgotten.

Short and sudden was his call,
Of one so dearly loved by all.
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
I little thought his death so near.
Two years have passed since that sad day,
When one I loved was called away.
Forget him? No, I never will,
Years can never ease the pain,
In the heart of one who loved him,
Till the day we meet again. WIFE.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Fleming wish to extend to their many friends and neighbors sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown to their late son during his illness, also for the very beautiful floral tributes and expressions of sympathy at the time of his death.

Mrs. A. M. McHugh wishes to extend thanks to the C. J. I. society, also her many friends for kind words shown during and subsequent to the death of her husband.

LONDON CHURCH HAS GREAT CELEBRATION

Noted For Fashionable Weddings More Than 200 Years Ago.

LONDON, May 7.—London's fashionable church, St. George's, Hanover Square, celebrated its bicentenary yesterday with a special series of services. Often called "St. Cupid's Church" in the latter part of the last century, St. George's is still popular for fashionable weddings, and second only to St. Margaret's, Westminster.

Sixty years ago as many as 1,000 weddings took place each year at St. George's, but during the last 80 years the average has been about 300. Included among the latter was that of Theodore Roosevelt, who described himself in the register as a "Frenchman" when he walked over from Brown's Hotel in a bowler hat to be married to Edith Kermit Goreau.

The registers are rich in signatures of other prominent men, as well as royalties. The signatures of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, alongside those of the present King and Queen, are recorded in the registers. The signatures of four prime ministers of England also are there, inscribed at the wedding of Henry Aquith, now Lord Oxford, to his present wife. They are Lord Rosebery, William Ewart Gladstone, Henry Asquith, now Lord Balfour, and now Lord Balfour.

Officials of the church assert that if all the couples who have been married at the famous old edifice during the last 40 years had been present at the bicentenary services, the congregation would have numbered about 12,000.

Funerals

The funeral of John Carlson, held this afternoon from his late residence, 190 Rodney street, West Saint John, to St. Jude's church, conducted by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, in absence of Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, rector. A short service was held at the house. The respect in which Mr. Carlson was held was shown by the large cortege, in which walked members of the "Fenwick Boys' Lodge," King Edward, No. 30, and members of sister lodges in regalia. W. H. Prieu, W. M., was in charge of the service which the lodge conducted at the grave in Cedar Hill. The Carleton Cornet Band led the procession. Many of the freight-handlers walked in the procession.

Among many floral tributes were the following: King Edward Lodge, No. 30, diamond; Roseborough Lodge, L. O. B. A., broken circles; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boyd and daughter, North Devon; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Price and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. Flewelling; Mr. and Mrs. Edward McLeod; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Geary; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDermott, sprays; City Public Works, broken circles; W. A. of St. Jude's, cross.

Use the Want Ad. Way

MOTHER'S DAY, Sunday, May 10

In appreciation of Mother's unselfish devotion to your happiness, send her a flower token of remembrance on this day, dedicated to her. Only the most beautiful gift you can give is worthy to express the message of your heart, a love so deep, that words cannot tell it. And flowers are the most beautiful, the most perfect gift to her. The appropriate flowers to send her are the flowers she loves best. You can say it with flowers to mother no matter where she may be by the Florists' ex L. All Telegram Service.

QUICK ACTION NOW
IN TRAFFIC CASES

Autoists in Washington Given
No Time to Bring Influence in Court.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(United Press).—A fourteen-hour-a-day traffic court has been established here.

Autoists now apprehended for violation of traffic regulations are haled into the new tribunal for immediate trial. Heretofore, a motorist arrested for traffic violation could post collateral for appearance in court the following day. But times have changed.

With the advent of the all day and half-night tribunal, arrested motorists are prevented from mustering influence "to get off" or be "let down" with a small fine.

If an officer makes an arrest for speeding or any other traffic violation, he hops into the motorist's car and orders him to drive to traffic court, which sits until eleven o'clock at night. The route to the court must be direct. No time is granted for telephoning of relatives to "pull strings."

Once in court, the arrested motorist awaits his turn from trial and with the populace wrought up over the increasing number of accidents and deaths resulting from reckless driving, sentences handed down by the court are usually severe.

First offense speeding cases usually result in fines averaging $15, with the warning that a second offense will bring a jail sentence.

The new traffic court was authorized by the last Congress.

Say Cotton Trade Is
