

comes to hand, and you will find the rest all fall into place and follow after like a company of well drilled soldiers; and though many may be hard to meet when it charges in a square, it is easily vanquished if you can bring it into line. You may have often seen the anecdote of the man who was asked how he had accomplished so much in his life:— "My father taught me, when I had anything to do, 'to go and do it.' There is the secret—the magic word now."

A London auctioneer has just dispersed, at small prices, a collection of rare and extremely valuable books and MSS relating to the early history of the American continent. Among them were the original private records of the French Commanders in Chief in Canada during the Old Seven Years' War, from 1755 to 1760. These sold for $320.

There was also a long original letter, signed by Don Diego Columbus, and addressed to Charles V., not dated, but evidently written in 1519; another letter to Charles V., from Hernando Cortes, with signature, and very interesting; a letter of Sir Francis Drake to the Earl of Essex; a letter of Diego de Almagro to Charles V., dated in Peru, January, 1535; the original autograph MS of Burns's ode on the American War; and a long and beautiful autograph letter of President Washington to the Rev. M. Boucher, of Annapolis, respecting the education of his step-son. This last brought $125; the Cortes letter $71; the Almagro MS, $93.
