To Day's Telegrams Indicate That They Are Determined Not to Yield.

Arrangements Completed for Seizing Najuba, Laing's Nek and Newcastle.

Twenty Thousand More British Troops to Be Sent to South Africa.

Chamberlain Demands Dismantlement of Forts and Reduction of Armament

(Associated Press.) London, Sept. 19.-There is an un rerified rumor from Capetown to-day that the Boers have delivered another message to the British high commissioner. Sir Alfred Milner, more conciliatory than yesterday's message.

The rumor, however, fails to obtain credence and is not taken as in any way mitigating the seriousness of the crisis. The Uitland press sees nothing but war ahead, and urges Uitlanders to leave immediately.

The Pall Mall Gazette prints a dispatch from Capetown which says the general impression is that the Boers will at once take the initiative and an attack is expected at any hour.

Troops continue to leave Capetown for Kimberley and the north, and the firstclass cruiser Terrible, sailing from Portsmouth for China to-day, is reported to have been ordered to go by way of Capetown instead of Suez.

Nothing is yet known regarding the late of the expected cabinet council.

The Volkstein declares that in the event of war Holland will send an amoulance corps to the Transvaal. The volksraad to-day referred the new draft law, providing for the confiscation of the property of persons found guilty of treason and lese majeste, to a special committee for consideration and report. At the request of President Kruger the chamber then went into secret session.

London, Sept. 20.-Great Britain's relations with the Transvaul remain unchanged. The situation is not likely to take on any new phase until after Friday's cabinet council.

Whether the Boers will be content to wait events that long before ending the suspense by opening hostilities, appears open to a great deal of doubt, The second edition of the Morning Post contains a dispatch from its Pietermar-

Trouble has been brewing ever since the militia was recalled by Gov. Tanner last week, since which time the white miners have refused to allow the negro miners to come into town. On Sunday thirteen negroes marched into the town and opened fire on a crowd of whites. The whites returned the fire promptly, and a running fight ensued. Further Light Upon the Strange Conduct of the Tuppers and Others.

After the fight was over four dead Disappointment at the Failure of a Scheme Suspected as the Cause.

> Ottawa, Sept. 14.-During the late session of Parliament it was a matter of common remark that the attitude of Sir Charles Tupper and his son Sir Hibbert Tupper toward Mr. Sifton, and particularly toward Major Walsh, could not be explained upon political grounds. There was a spirit of virulent personal animosity manifested by the Tuppers, father and son, but particularly by the latter, which ordinary political motives did not adequately account for. It was noticeable that Tupper Jr. went out of his way to make a most scandalous and unprecedented personal attack upon Major Walsh, and every reference to that personal hatred. The explanation of this fact was not apparent at the time, but it was evident to close observers that there must be something behind what was stated to account for it.

A recent event throws a flood of light upon these attacks and shows that so far from being actuated by public motives the hostility arose from the most ignoble reasons. Notice of a suit has lately been served upon Major Walsh on the part of the Hon, Edgar Dewdney, formerly minister of the interior, later on Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, and later still the manager of the Charles Tupper Klondike Company. Dewdney procured a permit to take 3,000 gallons of liquor into the Klondike last year from the government of the Northwest Territories. This permit was issued without the knowledge of the department of the interior, and it appears that Major Walsh, who was trying to prevent the importation of the liquor into the Yukon, caused the liquor to be seized. When the department of justice decided that the permit was valid the department of interior so advised Major Walsh, and he released the liquor, but in the meantime Dewdney alleges that the price of whisky had fal-len, and he claims that he lost a portion of the profits which he otherwise might have made. He now sues Major Walsh for damages. The government, of course, stands behind, Major Walsh and wil defend the action. It is noticeable that Sir Hibbert Tupper's firm are Mr. Dewdney's attorneys in bringing the action. We, therefore, have the ex-minister of the interior. Mr. Dewdney, manager of Sir Charles Tupper's company, through his solicitor, the ex-minister of justice, suing for damages because he was prevented from making as much money as he wished to make out of a whisky deal in the Yu kon. The damages claimed are $35,000. In view of the above facts it is not difficult to account for the bitterness of the attack on Major Walsh. It seems that disappointed greed over a whisky transaction, and not public spirit, has been the ruling motive. Sir Hibbert has again shown his total lack of ordinary judgment and has let the cat out of the bag in a most unmistakable manner. The fact of the matter seems to be that the whole crusade on the Yukon questhey were not permitted to exploit the Yukon territory and its resources and
