PRETORIA TEN YEARS HENCE.

A Prediction That the Boers Will Make Mr. Poulteney Bigelow, the well known American writer, in an article upon Pretoria, says: In my mind's eye I have a vision of Pretoria ten years hence. It will be he could be got rid of without being about your child."

under the Union Jack to do for that to some far-off, land. He is so young that he would forget all about to the way and Yankees at Washington.

The way of the Langeson and the sould be got rid of without being about your child."

"You are mistaken," said "miladi."

"You are mistaken," said "miladi."

"That child represents Lancewood, his home—and it is really not his; it has your of the little heir.

Hour after hour passed, and no tidings were heard of him. Lady Neslie and I value him accordingly. Setting the year of the little heir. 1896, Boers and British mixed socially Lancewood were razed to the ground than fall into the hands of a child of lose this grand old house and a large own. Vivien too was grieved. It was much divergence of opinion on a strolling player. Gerald," she conbut means to remain the paramount my life to see it done!"

SUFFERED TERRIBLE AGONY DUE TO KIDNEY AND LIVER TROUBLE.

Medicines Apparently Bad No Effect, Unt Dr. William, Plak Pills and Was

From the Mail, Granby, Que. Mr. Albert Fisher, accountant at Payne's cigar factory, Granby, Que., is known to almost every resident of the town, and is held in the highest esteen by all who know him. In con versation with the editor of the Mail recently, something was said concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, when Mr. Fisher remarked that he had found these pills a very valuable medicine. It was suggested that he ring with a large beautiful pearl in man stopped and began to sob. should make his experience known. and to this he readily consented, harding to the Mail the following letter for publication :-Granby, March 16th, 1900. In justice to Dr. Williams' Pink my testimonial to the many which have just said?" cause, they kept me in terrible agony. remedies, without effect, and which saved." easily persuaded, for I had given up the use of medicine, as nothing had said, almost bitterly. It seemed to helped me, but as he insisted, I fin- him so strange this morbid love of ally concluded to give them a trial. a home. I purchased one box, and was astonished to find that before it was replied. entirely used, I was quite a bit relieved, and after using six more, was pointing to the ring on his finger. fully restored to my former good health. I take great pleasure in ing like one just roused from a dream. recommending this valuable remedy, that others may profit by my ex- don to-morrow," said Gerald in an al-

ALBERT FISHER

going to the root of the disease. dealer does not keep them, they will ladyship sees me! I will tell her be sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, now." or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing ville. Ont.

BETS OFF!

breakfast table to the telephone in to remain there for a week or ten the hall to order some things from days." her butcher.

Halloa! said Mrs. Brown. Are you gracious moods. Bafy's the butcher?

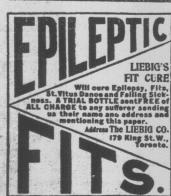

Well, this is Mrs. Brown's residence.

The boy employed in the butcher's that takes you away from us?" shop happened to answer the telephone, and promptly responded; speaking? Jenny, Mrs. Brown's cook.

are speaking with Mrs. Brown herin that case, madam, we'll call the bet dependent. So she was very gracious

Co-operative factories in Great Britain last year made profits aggregating over £200,000 on a capital of many matters, there was unanimity tinued, calling him for the first time will ever happen to him."

Through Storm and Sunshine

He looked at the beautiful flushed also annoyed at what she deemed a the best portion of the Boers will face lighted up with passion and sensation about nothing. throw in their lot cheerfully with the pride. He drew nearer to her and "Go and look for him," she said; British flag as loyal as are the French whispered low, a sudden, sweet guil- and the woman who stood greatly in clear eyes, saidty joy shooting through his veins and fear of her mistress's anger, hastensetting his very heart on fire.

"My whole life," she replied, quick- scared.

ly. Such a man would be a benefactor to the whole race of Neslies. He would do what I cannot do-preserve cannot find Sir Oswald." its honor unsullied." Gerald paused for a minute.

"If," he said, "some one did this reward he might ask?" "Yes," she replied, little dreaming

For the first time Gerald touched as far as the river Ringe." her hand; on one finger shone a gold the center.

that you mean what you say." She took the ring from her finger his fishing-tackle." and placed it on one of his.

"Miss Neslie" he said. "look into my face and tell me-think over your

The pains were not confined to the to have lost the power of thought, not there." back, but would shift to other parts to have forgotten much that I ought of the body. As a result, I could to remember; only that is clear to disgusted me with medicine. A She passed her hand over her eyes friend suggested that I try Dr. as she spoke, and her expression of dragged," said the count. Pink Pills. I was not bewildered dismay struck him. "How you love Lancewood!" he

"You will remember?" he said, "I never forget," she replied, speak-"Miss Neslia, I am going to Lonperience, and not suffer the tortures tered voice, -- he had seen "miladi"

I can do for you!" "To London!" she repeated, in sur-Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by prise. "I thought you meant-" "I am going to London," he said, They renew and build up the blood, "I shall leave here by the early train Lady Neslie had caught sight of him the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co, Brock- as he stood by the old sun-dial. He left Vivien then, and went over to

"I was just telling Miss Neslie that An amusing telephone story is told I wish very much to go to London of a certain lady named Brown. One to-morrow morning," he said, "and, morning recently she proceeded from if I have your ladyship's permission,
He has fallen into the river I am setting up such establishments.

Lady Neslie was in one of her most "Certainly," she replied. "Lancewood will miss you, Mr. Dorman.

There will not be a letter written or Will you please send me a large, thick an account attended to until your return. I hope it is nothing unpleasant "Miladi" was beginning to understand his value. It was something in Well, you just bet your sweet life these days, when her time was so fully occupied in an unceasing round of Great Cures Do you know, sir, to whom you are dissipation, to have one on whose honesty, truth, and integrity she could implicitly rely. No matter how careless she was, the accounts were al-You are mistaken, young man. You ways right. When she was irritated, Lady Neslie spoke of his leaving the Abbey, but "miladi" had the sense Is that sof replied the boy. Then to know the value of a good, faithful vening in the drawing-room. For worth.

o come to the conclusion that he is

CHAPTER XXXII.-Continued. 'You are not a yery anxious mo- power, a whole crowd of servants and

"I wish," she said, hurriedly, "that ther," observed the count, with a laborers searched the grounds, the he could be got rid of without being smile. "You will not break your heart gardens, the woods-but there was no

Even in the year of the Jameson raid, never ought to be his. Better that aside all love, I would not lose him volity, her greed, her worldliness, she give me considerable confidence in a bright future for the united white Fraces. Boer, Briton, Yankee and German—there were plenty of these even in that year who were heartly vins—he has no right to Lancewood. sick of Krugerism, much as they Heaven hears me and knows that I shawls and the most coquettish of rible rows. Some miles down the homored the old man for his past speak truly," she added. "If his mo- hats, had gone out because it was rible news. Some miles down the ring calamity. honored the old man for his past speak truly," she added. "If his moservices. Men of affairs, men who had money to invest, men who desired had money to invest, men who desired one spark of the true Neslie spirit, I liberal legislation quite as much as rid of," she cried with wild passion— approved fashion, the nurse, Mrs. any Afrikander, and when England "if he could but be taken away, Corby, had come with a pale, scared question that she not only can con- out knowing his name or his parent- not find Sir Oswald. Lady Neslie was quer all obstacles in South Africa, age—if it could but be, I would give indignant at the fact of her very pleasant tete-a-tete being disturbed, held in his hands.

brought to the house.

of violent hysterics.

For some few days they preserved a vain semblance of hope; the men

continued their search, advertisements were inserted in all the news-in London; he wrote from time to

To be Continued

GERMANY'S COSTLY NAVY.

of the Kalser.

The armor of the new German bat-

Some members of Parliament sug-

Lancewood.

ed away. "Suppose," he said, "that some one Half an hour passed—"miladi" had she meant what she said. did this-some one who would always forgotten the absurd little incident. A REALLY SICK MAN, did this—some one who would always be kind to him, who would provide She was listening to some of the him with the best of education, the sweetest and prettiest compliments most careful training, the means of she had ever heard -really the count earning his livelihood in all honor and had a genius for saying pleasant honesty,-what would you do for such things-when the nurse came again, a man? What would you give him?" her face looking white and even more

'My lady," she said, 'I am very "Where did you leave him?" asked Valerie emphatically.

"He did no lessons this morning; or your sake,-mind, for your sake your ladyship said that it was too alone-what would you give him? Any warm, and that I was to take him "I know!" was the impatient in-what shape that reward would take. terruption. "Where did you take him ?" I would give him anything he ask-"We went through the Hyde woods "Well?" said Valerie, for the

"Then," she continued, "Sir Oswald "Give me this," he said "as a proof turned cross; he said that he would fish, and that I must go back to fetch "Miladi's" brilliant face grew pale.

what they have done for me, to add answer-do you really mean what you child alone on the brink of the river?" Neslie. "My lady, he kicked me, he scream-"I do, I do!" she cried, "It is the ed, he bit my hands—he was so violent have seen in print. For some months only way of saving Lancewood. I that I did not dare to refuse him. I suffered most severely from pains only way of saving Lancewood. I He sat down on the fallen branch up and down my back. It was cannot see it all clear just yet; my brain is bewildered—all that I have of one of the trees, and promised me brain is bewildered—all that I have of one of the trees, and promised me lay. kidney trouble, but whatever the seen and heard has driven me mad. not to stir. My lady, when I went I seem to have lost my self-control, back with the fishing-tackle, he wa

With a long, low cry, Lady Neslie sprang from her seat. get little rest; my appetite was me. If he could be taken away in much impaired, and I was really a that fashion, Lady Neslie would have gin to search at once. Do not lose a moment!" she cried, wildly.

"Call all the servants in the house in her eyes, "I would far rather never have had it than that the boy's death should have given it to me." that this sufficed little is demonstrat-"Call all the servants in the house "It would be wiser to have the river

Valerie looked at him with dazed

"Dragged!" she repeated. "Do you not know that the Ringe is a swift, deep stream, and that it flows into "It is the love of my life-time," she the sea? I remember-oh, heaven, how well I remember !- Sir Arthur told me of a girl-a fair-haired girl -who drowned herself in the river, and her body was found many miles away on the southern shore." "Do not agitate yourself; the boy do so, I should be almost tempted to the same period in ordinary seasons.

may have strolled into the woods- ask her to remain." he may have chased butterflies, or draw near again. "Is there anything that he must have fallen into the river because he was left on the bank. That nurse of yours deserves Rich Harvest Reaped by the Two Builder to be reproved." "Fetch Miss Neslie," she said to one of the servants who had just ap- tleships is to consist of nickel steeland strengthen the nerves, thus drivand in all probability 1 may be away proached—"send to Hydewell—let the plate, the total cost being estimated proached—"send to Hydewell—let the plate, the total cost being estimated ing disease from the system. If your for a week or ten days. Ah-her keepers scour the woods. Oh, my at £13,000,000. The whole of it is to boy, my boy, I have lost Lancewood be furnished by two firms of Krupp if I have lost you!" and then she and Stumm, whose net profits is esrose up and hastened toward the timated at $8,350.00.

> The little motherly feeling that she gested that the Government should possessed was all called into action. establish works of their own or invite In a few minutes she stood in Vivien's competition. The Government's dele- 27,000,000. A glance at the map of room, panting, pale, and scared.

> sure!" vien's face as she listened. Lady ships 20 per cent cheaper than other greater part of the provinces of As-Neslie repeated the nurse's story.

KIDNEY DISEASE.

able Dr. A. W. Chase.

"I am very sorry," she said, gently SOMETHING QUITE NEW_ we will not waste time talking. Let us send people out

And, while the hot August sun CEYLON GREEN TEA

Same flavor as Japan, only more delicious.

GREAT FAMINES OF INDIA.

Boer appreciates the necessity for in such hands? If he could but be got talking, making love after the most found the little whip which he had ents sold their children into slavery found the little whip which he had held in his hands.

"He is drowned, sure enough," said the count, when these articles were of trees and grass until even that the visitors until no buyers could be found. For a time thousands subsisted upon leaves of trees and grass until even that the visitors until no buyers could be found. For a time thousands subsisted upon leaves of trees and grass until even that shall have demonstrated beyond brought up far away from here, with- face, to tell "miladi," that she could the count, when these articles were of trees and grass until even that brought to the house.

The unhappy mother fell into a fit living actually fed upon the bodies of f violent hysterics.

"If I have lost him, I have lost ined to revel in irony, it is recorded Lancewood!" she cried; and Vivien, that while the rainy season of 1770 standing by, with pity shining in her brought an abundant harvest, in the meantime millions of starving "I would give all that Lancewood wretches crawled despairingly from holds to have him alive again." And one deserted village to another in a vain search for food.

DYING IN MULTITUDES through inability to live through th few weeks that separated them from papers, large rewards were offered. their harvest.

The effects of this famine were felt It was all in vain; every one came to the same conclusion-that the for two generations. The children young heir had been drowned in the and young people having almost sucriver, and that his body had been cumbed, there was no rising generacarried by the swift current out to tion to till the field. So jungles grew up where there had once been "Could he have been stolen ?" ask- flourishing farms and villages, and ed "miladi," with a slight glimmer of tigers and elephants multiplied t such an extent that the population She was told that it was unlikely, lay at the mercy of the beasts. that the whole county had been scour- In 1837 the Northwest Provinces ed, and that it was well known that were ravaged by a famine of which neither gypsies nor tramps had been it is recorded that in two cities the seen near Hyde woods or Hydewell. | inhabitants died at the rate of 1,200

All hope was gone. Her ladyship a day, and in the rural districts huwent into deepest mourning; the nurs- man beings perished by villages. ery was closed; the head-nurse, un- By the three great families of 1860. der whose charge the child had been 1866, and 1869 in the Northwest Provat the time he was lost, was dismissed inces, Orissa and Rajputana, three with all possible ignominy; a marble millions of people are said to have tablet was placed in Hydewell church; been swept away, in the 1866 the famall the newspapers had a paragraph ished wretches again resorted to can-telling how suddenly and unhappily nibalism. the little heir of Lancewood had come to his end, and that the estate reverted to Sir Arthur's daughter, Miss Neslie.

Gerald Dorman was still detained

Bengal was again visited by a famine in 1873, when 3,900,000 people received daily relief at a cost to the Government of $32,500,000, and to private charity of $1,140,000. On this light in the database guns, buyin' gold bricks, guzzlin' patent medicines, lightin' the fire with coal-oil, goin' up in balloons, skatin' on thin ice, tryin' to beat other people at their own games, indorsin' our friends' notes, thinkin' we know it the little heir of Lancewood had come "Surely," she said, "you never were so foolish, so mad, as to leave the Naglia."

"Surely," she said, "you never were so foolish, so mad, as to leave the Naglia. occasion the previous opening up of time, expressing his regret at what the country by roads and railways, at bay, so that few actually perished. From 1876 to 1878 the provinces of Bombay, Madras and Mysore were swept by famine and pestilence that almost equalled the disaster of a cenalmost equalmost equ more Vivien Neslie was heiress of swept by famine and pestilence that "Believe me," she said, with tears tury before. At a cost to the Gov-"We cannot choose," observed Mr. ed by the fact that in one district

Providence sends. I am sorry for the to have perished. child-sorry, after a fashion, for his From the subsequent epidemic of mother; but I am pleased that Lance- cholera, the deaths were returned at wood is in good hands again. The 357,000 for Madras, 58,000 for Mysore whole estate and family too would have gone to ruin had the child lived.

Now I suppose her ladyship, with her crist of the control of the provinces under the child lived.

Now I suppose her ladyship, with her crist of the control Now I suppose her ladyship, with her train of French visitors, will go?" der British administration out of a nam's Painless Corn Extractor. "I suppose so," said Vivien, thoughtpopulation of 190,000,000, 5,250,000 signature on each bottle of Pols fully "Vat I am so sorry for her deaths took place in excess of what fully. "Yet I am so sorry for her deaths took place in excess of what that, if I thought she would care to might have been looked for during

IN THE YEAR 1897 famine once more raised its head in the northwest provinces, threatening a population of 80,000,000. By Octo- know. ber, 1897, the total cost of relief had reached $50,000,000; but yet many hundreds of thousands perished. The disaster was quickly followed by the plague, which had a death roll in the Province of Bombay of 100,000; to be in turn succeeded by the present fam-It is computed that from the year 1770 until 1879, India has been visited in different parts by no less than thirty-one famines, with a loss to human life directly and indirectly o gate replied that this was impossible India will show the enormous extent

"Vivien," she cried, "my boy is lost! now, owing to the enormous cost of of territory subject to these visitations. With the exception of the With reference to Mr. Goschen's strip of coast beneath the mountains There was genuine surprise in Vi- statement that England built her from Bombay to Cape Cormorin, the countries, which means that Germany sam and Burmah, together with the "I have told him so often," she said, is now spending £12,400,000 more than deltaic districts at the head of the "that the river was dangerous—that he must not go near it. Oh, Vivien, what shall I do?"

There was genuine distress in Miss Neslie's face, real pain.

England would do for the same number of ships, the Government's delegate said that in England shipbuilding yards were well equipped, materials and coal were cheaper and there was sharper competition among builders.

In spite of the head of the Bay of Bengal, the rest of the peninsular is liable to drought and consequently all times on the verge of starvation.

In spite of the wast sums expended upon irrigation works, and the gen eral development of the country under British auspices, the hopelessness of the situation was expressed by an eminent Anglo-Indian authority, who said that no compensating in fluences can prevent these recurring periods of continuous drought with which large provinces of India are af flicted. Waterworks on a scale adequate to guarantee the whole of India from drought not only exceed the possibilities of fiance, but are beyond the reach of engineering skill.

WHEN PAYING CALLS.

One who is unaccustomed to making formal calls should keep in mind the point of leaving, and when the call is ended rise quickly and easily, shake hands with her hostess, making some pleasant, friendly remark as she does so, and go directly out. Naturalness is the most potent charm in any one-man or woman. To stand at the door of the drawing room and gossip after one has risen to depart, keep ing the hostess standing and uneasy while her other guests impatiently wait for a few words before bringing their visits to a close, is not only sel fish, but the height of ill-breeding Noncompliance with accepted cus-toms may be forgiven in a genius or a great hero but an ordinary mortal must mind his "p's and q's" in this as in all other things connected with FEW COOKS IN ENGLAND.

he Wide Wide World is Suffering Fro a Dearth of Housemaids. The servant problem is, without ubt, an engaging one in London. There is hardly a town or country in England from which complaints on the subject have not been recently re ceived. In addition, householders with experience abroad, in the colonie India, China, Japan and America have contributed information.

Many objections are raised at the idea of importing Indian or Chinese servants on account of their code of morals and their peculiar views on the way, because of the evil he had ernment reports give an idea of the are many who, knowing the silent Taenough on certain vital questions to by his Christian name, "it could not This conversation took place begive me considerable confidence in a be very wrong. He has no right to to grow up with the country—all men should be pleased, proud, happy, but de Calloux had hastened to join her— the sea, they had found the child's a total failure, it is computed that signed by the servants themselves as with progressive minds were displeased with the pretext put forth by the Krugerites for keeping the country in a backward state. The modern is Rheumatism of the back.

The cause is Uric Acid in the blood. If the kidneys did their work there would be no Uric Acid and no Lumbago. Make the kidneys do their work. The sure, positive and only cure for Lumbago is

Dodd's Kidney

THEIR USE. Little Enoch-Paw, what are fool good for, anyhow?" Farmer Flintrock-To teach us the results of blowin' into unloaded shotall, flirtin' with grass-widows, and s on and so forth, my son!

Man in Distress. A whole family suffering. A dull lumbago, makes life a misery. But POISONING A YOUNG MIND. What is a bargain, pa? A bargain, Freddy, is any shop worn thing we don't need that you Greston; "we must accept whatever of 2,129,000 people, 570,000 are supposed mother feels compelled to buy because

> A FINE FELLOW He may be, but if he tells you that

VALUABLE FOR RESEMBLANCE. You have a fine collection of lit erary portraits, Miss Myrtilla. Yes, aren't they lovely? Every last one of them looks like somebody

ALWAYS A WINNER

Ready for Painting?

Well, a good start is half the pleasure. a poor paint will not give a good start, whether it is a cheap paint or a dear are not cheap paints, and they are not dear paints. They are high grade house paints at a reasonable made to wear, to look a little better than the best. Ask your dealer.

RAMSAY'S PAINTS

A. Romsov & Son.

 APPRHENSIVE. What is the cause of your antipathy to foreigners? asked the knowledge seeker. Well, answered the Chinaman, we': afraid pretty soon we'll be having trolley cars, and then we'll be told to step lively, and then we'll have scandals in our city councils, and alto-gether we feel as if we were taking terrible chances.

MONTREAL HOTEL DIRECTORY The "Balmoral," Free Bus Am. Plan AVENUE HOUSE McGill-College Avenue per day.

ST. JAMES' HOTEL. Opposite G.T.R. Depot, two blocks from O. P. Modern Impact Hayas. Modern Impact Hayas.

lway. First class Commerce vements—Rates moderate. FINANCIAL TOMMY. Ma-Tommy, you seem to love etter than you do me. Tommy-Oh, ma, I don't mean to, full o' cents. FOR OVER PIFTY YEARS

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by mothers for their children teething. It soo hes the child, softers the gums, allays pain, cures wind colle, and is the best remedy for diarrhoss. 25c. a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world, Be sure and askfor 'Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

ALL HE MAY EXPECT.

but, y' see, pa allus has his pockets

So, there, said Mrs. Henpeck, concluding her remarks, A word to the wise is sufficient. Yes, my dear, replied Henpeck, and the average married man a word edgewise is sufficient.

STATE OF CHIO, CITY of TOLEDO, } ss.

LUCAS COUNTY.

FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing busines in the City of Toucho, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the um of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY. CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December. A.D. 1886.

A. W. GLEASON.

SEAL.

Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F.J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 750."
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

When some people lose their positions they look around for sympathy instead of a new job.

CALVERT'S

Carbolic Disinfectants, Scaps, Ointment, Tooth Powders, etc., here been awarded 100 medals and diplomas for superior excellence. Their regular use prevent infectious diseases. Ask your dealer to obtain a supply. Lists mailed free on application. F. C. CALVERT & CO., MANCHESTER . . ENGLAND

Every Town can have a Band Lowest prices ever quoted. Fine catalogue 500 illustrations mailed free. Write us for anything in Music or Musical Instruments. Whaley Royce & Co., Toronto, Ont., and Winnipeg, Ma

Catholic Prayer Books, Reserves, Grund Offices, Scapulars
Religious Pictures, Statuery, and Church Ornaments Religious Pictures, Statuary, and Church Ornaments Educational Works, Mail orders receive prompt atten-sion. B. & J. SADLIER & Odg., Montreal, NATURAL HEN INCUBATIOR, 105 March.

ER, costs only $2, plan of construction $1.
A. VICKERS, Calgary, Alberta. POULTRY, BUTTER, EGGS, APPLES, The Dawson Commission Co., Limited

WOOD & PHOTO, ENGRAVING J. L.JONES ENG. C? 6.8.10 ADELAIDE STW TORONTO

Dyeing! Cleaning! "BRITISH AMERICAN DYEING CO." Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec.

FURS. FURS.
Importer and exporter of Raw Furs and Skins. Consignments solicited. Highest prices paid for ginsing.
H. JOHNSON,
404 St. Paul street, Montreal-

Valuable Book Free r. Hammond-Hall's Great Bod

MOTHERHOOD Handsome edition, library style, bound in cloth, half-tone engravsubjects which every married woman, and those contemplating narriage, should know.

seed at once if you desire one.

BRITISH CHEMISTS COMPANY.

88-88 TORONTO, CANADA

The Canada Permanent and Western Canada

Mortgage Corporation. DFFICE_ Canada Permanent Building, BRANCH OFFICES-Winnipeg, Man., Vanoouxer, B.C., St. John, W.S. Capital Paid Up, $6,000,000

Reserve Fund, - 1,500,000 orge Gooderham. 2nd Vice-Preside W. H. Beatty.

Managing Director— Walter S. Lee.

1st Vice-President and Chairman of Executive Committee

J. Herbert Mason. Debentures Issued in Sterling and Cur-

Handsomest Baby Gets The Handsomest Prize. ALL JUDGED FROM PHOTOGRAPHS ONLY. THE BRITISH CHEMISTS COMPANY English Teething Syrup ARE SOINS TO SIVE, WITHOUT COST IN ANY WAY, A TWENTY BOLLAR COLD PIECE to the prettiest baby in Canada. A TEN DOLLAR GOLD PIECE to the 2nd prettiest. A FIVE DOLLAR GOLD PIECE to the 3rd prettiest. A TWO-AND-A-HALF DOLLAR GOLD PIECE in order of merit, to each of the next 10 prettiest babies. A ONE DOLLAR COLD PIECE in order of merit, to each of the next 40 prettiest babies, while to every baby's photograph, will also be given FREE our ILLUSTRATED BOOK, "MOTHERHOOD," on the Care of Children in Health and Disease, on receipt of ten cents to cover cost of mailing.

CONDITIONS: READ CAREFULLY! Every person

Address, BRITISH CHEMISTS COMPANY, Dept. 108 Victoria Street, TORONTO, CANADA.

intending to send photograph of baby, must send us post eard at once stating when the photo will reach us. All photos sent in must reach us not later than July 14th.

Do not send photos of children ever 3 years eld; they will not be considered.

Photos must be plainly marked with age, sex, name of the child and full name and post office address of the parents. The smallest picture will receive as much consideration as the largest.

The prizes will be awarded by a committee of seven disinterested ladies, and distributed by mail to the respective winners, August 4th, 1900.

The pictures of all babies competing will be published in beautiful half-tone engravings in Toronto Globe, beginning Saturday, August 4th, 1900. Photos returnable on receipt of postage.

As we have no time to answer needless correspondence, please do not ask for further information, simply send post card, stating when picture will be sent.

co come to the conclusion that he is cost. People do not steal children in these days."

KIDNEY DISEASE.

Mr. James Simpson, Newcomb Mills, in remedies. Sold everywhere, Edinese days."

Mr. James Simpson, Newcomb Mills, in remedies. Sold everywhere, Edinese days."

By the Use of the Famous Prescription of the Vener-

Here are reported three cases in —"This is to certify that I was sick which Dr. Chase's family remedies in bed the most of the time for three proved a blessing of incalculable years with kidney disease. I took evening in the drawing-room. For reasons of his own, he consented, while Vivien, as the darkening night fell around her, lay with her face on the ground, crying—

"If it be wrong, oh, may, I be par
"If it be wrong, oh, may, I be par
"If it be wrong, oh, may, I be par-

"If it be wrong, oh, may. I be pardoned! It is my only hope!"

CHAPTER XXXIII.

"It is all nonsense," said Lady Valerie; "all servants are alike—they love a sensation. The child is right enough."

"It is just possible," remarked her companion, the Comte de Callaoux "that he may have strayed somewhere in the park."

"He has not strayed," she said impatiently. "It is only the nurse's idleness. Just because she did not find him where she had left him, she has to come to the conclusion that he is

"If it be wrong, oh, may. I be pardoned! Mr. Joseph Geroux, 22 Metcalf St., Ottawa, Ont., writes:—"I was nervous, had headache and brain fag. I was restless at night and could not sleep. My appetite was poor, and I suffered from nervous dyspepsia. Little business cares worried and irritated me. After having used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for about two months, I can frankly say that I feel like a new man.

"My appetite is good, I rest and sleep well, and this treatment has strengthened me wonderfully. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Pills are certainly the best I ever used, and I say so betained it is due."

"It is just possible," remarked her companion, the Comte de Callaoux "that he may have strayed some where in the park."

"He has not strayed," she said impatiently. "It is only the nurse's idleness. Just because she did not find him where she had left him, she has to come to the conclusion that he is

"KIDNEY DISEASE.