WILHELMINA'S DAIRY.

The kings of Bavaria have long derived a profit from certain breweries in Munich, and now Queen Wilhelmina of Holland is making money selling milk and butter. Her first step in the direction was when she induced her husband, Prince Henry, to buy several cows, which were placed on the rich land adjoining the castle of Lee. The cows prospered exceedingly, and the queen was so well pleased with the success of the experiment that she instructed the manager of her estates to visit several stock farms and to purchase thirty of the best cows that could be obtained in Holland. This has been done, and milk and butter of excellent quality are now being sold from the royal farm—Golden Penny.

THE FIRST DIAMOND AT KIMBER-

LEY.

It was not until the autumn of 1870 that the first diamond was found on the present site of Kimberley. There was a shallow, circular depression known as Dutoitspan, on the edge of which a farmer named Van Wyk lived in a cabin plastered with mud. This but had no architectural pretensions, but, in its way, it went beyond the luxury of Fifth Avenue, for the mud with which it was daubed was sprinkled with diamonds. One day Van Wyk's children prospected the plastering of their home and extracted several gems.

The farmer and his friends began digging at the spot from which the mud had been taken, and found more diamonds.

Miners swarmed in, and a new camp, called Dorothea, sprang up. In June, of the next year, the Kimberley mine proper—one of the four great deposits that form the present Kimberley group—yielded its first diamond.

lans, Mrs. Robert Raff, Mrs. C. E. Williams and Miss Hattie Cunliffe left for Montreal and St. John, N. B., on Thursday evening."

WORK ON THE I. C. R. EXTEN-

SIONS.

The work of the I. C. R. at Gilbert's

Island, which was commenced last year, will be resumed after the first of July, beginning at the grading season, although most of the grading and leveling was done, only about a third of the rails have been laid, and there is still a great deal of work to be completed. The steam shovel will not be required this year, but employment will be given to quite a large number of men for the remainder of the season in ballasting and laying rails.

The contractors for the new roundhouse are pushing the work rapidly. A concrete basement has been completed and the brick walls are now going up.

It is expected that these walls will be finished in a few weeks. The I. C. R.

has not yet decided whether they will remove the present machine, and repair shops to the eastern end of the new yard, but if they do other buildings will have to be put up, and this will probably be done by the I. C. R. crews and not by contract.

LECTURES IN VICTORIA RINK.

JUNE WEDDINGS

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was today the scene of several very pretty weddings, and on each occasion the church was well filled with friends of the contracting parties. In addition to these there are a number of other marriages in the city this afternoon and evening.

O'CONNOR-GALLIVAN.

At a quarter past six o'clock this morning Miss Mary E. Gallivan, of 125 Duke Street, was united in marriage to Francis J. O'Connor, aged 27, Bu-falo, N. Y., for P. F. Collier & Son. The ceremony was performed in the cathedral by the parish priest, Rev. F. J. Mc-Murray, and although the guests included only near relatives there were present a very large gathering of friends.

Miss Gallivan wore grey crepe de chine with chiffon applique trimmings, and a hat of white rope straw with white plume and chrysanthemum trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a white dress with a London twine cloth, with a cream lace hat with red poppy trimmings, and a bouquet of red carolines. Little Kathryn Gallivan, the maid of honor, wore white and blue striped silk, with a bonnet to match, and carried a basket of flowers.

The groom was supported by Florence

Driscoll, of Portland, Me.

After the ceremony the party drove to Miss O'Connor's home, where breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor afterwards left on the eight o'clock train for Buffalo, via upper Canadian cities.

Miss Gallivan was the recipient of quite a number of beautiful presents.

From her former associates at the teaching staff of St. Malachi's school she received two etchings and from the members of her class a silver fern dish.

The groom's present was a sunburst of pearls with diamond centre.

MORRIS-FIN.

The cathedral was again the scene of a wedding at three o'clock this afternoon

Dr. Thomas Morris, of St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Helen Fin, of 72

Union street.

Miss Fin, one of the daintiest brides of the season, was given away by her father. She wore a wedding dress of white crepe de chine with white picture hat and a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was supported by Harry

H. McCullough. The guests included the relatives of the parties and a few intimate friends of the bride, but the church was thronged with many friends.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. J. McMurray, breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 72 Union street. The rooms were very prettily decorated, the mantels being banked with palms and cut flowers, and the tables showing the same effect in white, pink and green.

HORSE NOTES.

The fast brown mare Whirligig, which was formerly owned by George Clark of this city, and sold by him to Dr.

Harris of Yarmouth, is now in Truro.

Andrew Learmont is her owner and Whirligig is entered and will run in the free-for-all at Springhill in July.

Truro people look on this mare as a winner.

Bell Clear formerly owned by Adam

H. Bell, of St. John is also in Truro.

Judson Hanson, her owner, has recently bought a mare for her and the two animals are so well matched that even Bell Clear's former owner was unable to tell them apart.

DOG DAYS COMING.

The mayor's clerk has been a busy man for the past week or so, and today things are even more lively than ever.

He is kept hustling in writing out dog licenses, for since the summonses have been issued by the magistrate and are
