Yesterday's game of ball at Fredericton was four out of five which the Franklins have won from the Tartars this season.

The Fredericton Gleaner says that the Franklins have done an unnecessary lot of kicking.

Harris made a spectacular catch in the outfield.

Mallory, the Tartars' big twirler, pounded out a home run with the bases full.

George, the Franklins' heady pitcher, was not able to play in yesterday's game. "Silent" Tommy Burns was also absent. The latter left to join the team this morning.

Batters—Briggs and Hayes, Mallory and Finnemore.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 23.—The wheat crop of Manitoba and the territories will be between sixty and sixty-five million bushels. Of this Manitoba produced about forty-seven million and the territories about sixteen million bushels. Prospects are that, owing to increased prices, this year's crop will net the producer considerably more than that of 1907. At present prices it will realize about $42,000,000, the price for No. 1 and 2 northern, which most of the wheat of this year grades, being from 70 to 72 cents.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—Another score of petitions greeted the commons today praying for delay in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific. The great number of protests coming in daily shows the feeling existing against the deal.

When the national trans-continental bill came up Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick offered an amendment to meet Mr. Oiler's contention that the delay in the road would come in free of duty. It definitely sets forth that only such supplies as may be actually purchased by the government will be excused from paying customs duties. It was held over to give the opposition a chance to examine it.

On clause 8, calling for the construction of the eastern section, Mr. Clancy moved an amendment calling for delay in carrying on the work until it shall have been determined that the line will follow the route permitting the best possible grades. The house talked on this point all day, but the government refused to allow Cox to wait.

Mr. Clancy pointed out that there was no information as to the line, and in view of the fact that a score of petitions had been presented to parliament against the job, deliberation on its merits was necessary.

Hon. Mr. Fielding was satisfied there was reasonable assurance that the section could be built on reasonable terms. It was the intention of the government to proceed with it in any case.

Mr. Borden said the country would know now what it had to expect. The whole argument in support of the construction of the eastern section made by the member for North Norfolk, on which the government so much relied, was based on practicable gradients being found, and yet gradients or no gradients the government was resolved to go ahead against all counsels of prudence and experience.

In the course of the debate Mr. Charlton was given a warm time of it by the opposition for his somewhat after. He charged that the conservatives were disloyal, which led Caghran to remark that the opposition would not accept any lesson in loyalty from Charlton.

Mr. Fleming's interview in the Halifax Chronicle was read in support of the scheme, but another interview published in the Toronto News a day later, and revised by Sir Sandford Fleming, was quoted by the opposition, as showing that he was really opposed to the deal.

The government was challenged to prove their faith in Fleming's opinions by asking time to submit his professional report on the merits of the proposal.

Clancy's amendment was defeated, and Fitzpatrick's amendment was then taken up. Mr. Oiler considered it did not go far enough. He claimed that the period of construction no supplies should be admitted free of duty. Canadian manufacturers should be given all advantages arising out of the construction of the new road.

Fitzpatrick's amendment passed and Mr. Barker gave the government another chance of voting against Canadian ports by introducing an amendment to promote that freight rates to Canadian ports shall not be higher than those levied on traffic to United States ports.

Mr. Borden and Mr. Fielding had a warm exchange as the result of the remark by the latter that the conservatives were unpatriotic. Mr. Borden declared that this came with bad grace from the ex-premier of Nova Scotia, who led the campaign which threatened confederation. He would discuss that question on any platform in Canada. Mr. Fielding retorted that Mr. Borden had supported the liberal government in Nova Scotia. Mr. Borden was quite willing to admit that he made a five-minute speech for his cousin. If he had been guilty of the one hundredth part of the inconsistencies the Fieldings had committed in denouncing Ontario millers whom he had not courage to oppose, he might have cause for regret.

On section 2, last clause standing, the government voted to protect amendment after amendment to protect Canadian ports and industries.

Gourley had an amendment to force trade to the maritime ports, but it was defeated in the same way as those preceding it.

BEAT THE PACING RECORD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Prince Albert, the pacing hero of a hundred races and the champion of a score of half-mile tracks, went against the world's pacing record of 1:59, held by Dan Patch, and beat it most decisively at the Empire City track today. It was the first day of the autumn meeting of the Empire City trotting club and in addition to a strong card of four races, Prince Albert was billed for what looked like the impossible feat of beating the record. But Prince Albert had recently won the half-mile track championship in 2:03 1-2, which had been won only the week before by Dan Patch in 2:04, and good judges were sanguine.

The weather and track were perfect and the wind, which was high early in the day, kindly subsided so that all the conditions were favorable. Mart Harquest, the trainer and driver of the Prince, on account of overweight, decided to get John Curry to drive and he drove the thoroughbred speed-maker in front with the wind shield sulky.

At the third time the starter gave the word and, pacing like a perfect piece of machinery, Prince Albert shot away to the quarter pole in 23 1-2. As he got into the back stretch he increased his speed and was at the half in 58 seconds. Then the crowd realized that they were witnessing the fastest mile of the century, and cheers and shouts of "come on" came from grand stand and lawn. Without a break or a tremor he flashed by the three-quarter pole in 1:28 1-4, and without any urging came on with a most superb burst of speed, crossing the wire in 1:57.

The death occurred early this morning of Francis William, the twelve weeks' old son of Francis I. and the late Josephine M. McCafferty. Deceased had been ill but a few days and the death came as a sudden shock to Mr. McCafferty and his many friends.

BRITISH POLITICS.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The political crisis has taken on a phase which lends to the present situation an historical and constitutional importance of almost unprecedented interest. The King has interfered, not constitutionally, or beyond the powers vested in the crown, but in the exercise of his prerogative to an extent never dreamed of in the Victorian era.

Premier Balfour's continued presence at Balmoral has given rise to much surmise and comment, but the Associated Press is able to state definitely that it is due to the King's determination not to assent to the formation of a new cabinet until thoroughly satisfied that its personnel and combination is such as to ensure the efficient carrying on of the affairs of the empire pending the resumption of parliament.

For years previous cabinets were formed or ministerial vacancies filled with the mere formal presentation to the sovereign of the names of the new ministers.

King Edward has done away with this tradition. He has spent the last few days in constant discussion with Mr. Balfour as to the advisability from the point of view of national welfare of the latter's suggested appointments. Ministers now holding offices and those nominated for office have been summoned to Balmoral to join in these conferences and all have been subjected to a degree of interrogation such as has surprised even those who knew King Edward intimately as Prince of Wales.

King Edward has not shared the keen public indignation against Lord Lansdowne aroused by the report of the South African war commission and after a minute examination of the circumstances he is alleged to have consented to his lordship continuing as foreign minister. This decision has not prevented his majesty from frankly telling the ministers that he wanted something done to improve the military muddle and that he hoped that some man would be appointed who with the committee's report as a basis, would be capable of changing the system which rendered inefficiency unavoidable.

The question of having some general, notably Lord Kitchener, as head of the war office, has been keenly discussed at Balmoral between the king and the ministers, but the Associated Press understands that the consensus of opinion was that such an appointment would be interpreted as a modified form of military dictatorship which the public would never sanction. Whatever the results may be, they can safely be attributed to a large extent to the king's interest in the crisis.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Alexander W. Black, liberal member of parliament for Banffshire, makes public tonight an interesting series of letters which passed between himself and Mr. Chamberlain in which Mr. Black maintains that the former colonial secretary launched his fiscal scheme while ignorant of Canada's attitude.

WANTED—A case of Headache that KUMFORT Powders will not cure in ten to twenty minutes.
