We are showing FOUR PARTICULARLY STRONG RANGES IN THE LEADING CHEVIOT GOODS and each line is shown in known Pyrle finish, soap shrunken goods. You can depend upon them being fast colored, they do not need to be shrunken and as they are pure wool they are the most serviceable goods that have been shown in many seasons past.

Then we are showing a full range of the plain French materials such as BATISTE, VENETIANS, BROADCLOTHS, ranging in price from 45 CENTS UP TO $2.23 A YARD.

Not anything like full lines, of course. But RARE BARGAINS for the lucky men who "get here first" and find their size.

Bargains for EVERY man for that matter-and unusual ones 20 per cent. cut right off our newest and finest 1910 Suits-including the most popular fabrics, shades and patterns.

OVERCOATS, too, cut 20 per cent.and some MORE than that. Altogether, it's what a poetically inclined person might call "a feast of bargains." But we, being prosaic business men, term it "an unusual money-saving opportunity."

THE WEATHER

The Carleton Cornet Band will play at the evangelistic services this even-ng in the City Hall, West End.

The appointments of Elmer A. Smith of Albert County and Jeremiah McArthur of Shedlac as provincial constables have been gazetted.

Convenient, delicious, economical. These words describe "Reindeer" Condensed Coffee and "Reindeer" Condensed Cocoa. Try them. All you require is boiling water.

The Carleton Cornet Band will assist in the Simultaneous Campaign meetings this evening. The members at seven o'clock sharp. You can save 25 per cent. on Pidgeon's prices in the custom department, but this price reduction is equal to a 50 per cent. reduction compared with other stores' prices.

D. MAGEE'S SONS APPLY

Owing to business duties, W. G. Scovil says he will not be a candidate for aldermanic honors in Sidney ward. Messrs. Bustin and Tonge are now in the field and the friends of a third party are endeavoring to have him enter the fight.

Mens.

Negotiation has been opened with Rev. Lawrence B. Greenwood, who is now working in St. John in the simultaneous evangelistic campaign, with a view to nclding special services in the Church Avenue Baptist Church, Sussex. Mr. Greenwood is one of the most forceful preachers engaged in the St. John campaign. If he comes here, he will bring with him his own choir director, who will lead a choir of special voices. Definite details will not be arranged for a few days yet. The Sussex meetings, if held, will last about two weeks.—Sussex Record.

The tax rate for the ensuing year will be in the vicinity of $1.10, the same as in 1709. This will provide the town with sufficient funds to meet all current expenditure and discharge some old obligations that have been standing for a long time. The end of the year should see the town on easy street, with the exception of the legacy left over from pre-incorporation days in the shape of a big deficit in the sinking fund. That is being met, however, although it will take some time to straighten matters out.—Sussex Record.

Business in the police court was rather dull this morning, there being but two defendants, James Lyons, the proprietor of the $1. James Hotel, and George Cooper, a runner for the Ottawa Hotel, were charged by I. R. C. Policeman Collins with soliciting customers at a place not allotted to them at the Union Depot.

Brigadier Adby, the singing evangelist of the Salvation Army, gave a most interesting and helpful lecture and sang very effectively several beautiful songs to a large audience of people in the S. A. Citadel last night, The brigadier has been an officer for 25 years and has travelled extensively, seeing many won to Christ. At the close of the lecture the Brigadier performed the unveiling ceremony of a tablet in memory of Ensign Bertha Brace and Miss Daisy Brace, who were drowned in Sarnia, Omt., in July of 1999.—

LOCAL NEWS River Ice Unsafe and Detours Added 20 Miles to Trip From Wickham-

Herse and Rig Rescued.

REACHING THE CITY

Keys found on Charlotte street and on the corner of Stanley street and City Road are at the central police reach the city for residents of the river is now an experiment not unmingled with excitement. Duncan Case, of Wickham, who drove down yesterday had to make a circuit tation. No safe crossing can be made anywhere near Wickham above or below. Wickham is forty miles away by the usual road route. Mr. Case could not reach the west side of the St. John river at all, and had to come through to the Kennebecasis by way of Belleisle, crossing on a line which brought oim out at Drury Cove.
On his way over the ice its treacher ous nature was brought to his notice, when he was called upon to assist a horse and sled out of the water. This rig had been following the line on which hay had been hauled only the day before, but the ice had become unrustworthy even within a few hours.

Hubert, also of Dalhousie, has been called for March 1, for the same purpose.

A most interesting lecture was delivered in the Every Day Club rooms last evening by A. Gordon Leavitt, who took as his subject, Natural History. There was a large attendance of men and boys and for three quarters of an hour Mr. Leavitt held their close attention. The lecture was illustrated by several drawings of animals, birds, insects, etc., and Mr. Leavitt also displayed some interesting mineral specimens.

The death occurred at Campbellton for upwards of the Presbyterian ministry and very well known throughout the province. Dr. Carr had occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at Campbellton for upwards of twenty years and had been in the ministry for almost forty years, having been ordained in 1871. Until some six weeks ago he had enjoyed excellent health and his illness which at first was not regarded as serious developed about the beginning of the year, it turned out that he was sufferveloped about the beginning of the year. It turned out that he was suffering from cancer. Dr. Carr is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters, the elder son Hugh being a resident of St. John where he holds the position of principal of the Newman Street School; the other son is a banker in the west, and the two daughters live at home.
