

. . . . Around the Town

SPLENDID WELCOME HOME EXTENDED
PREMIER AND MRS. TWEEDIE AT CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 22.—(Special).—Chatham and Newcastle signaled the return yesterday of Premier and Mrs. Tweedie from their coronation trip, by a display of bunting during the day and an assemblage in the evening of representative citizens at their residence, with the Citizens' band, who serenaded them. The party was a fine one, and of welcome by Mayor Snowball, as a happy reply by Mr. Tweedie, with the usual

1970-1971

Mr. and Mrs. Tweddie, however, came to the station in the morning, and met the train at Newcastle, where they were met and welcomed by the high sheriff, Colonel Gall, and a few other friends, and then escorted to the hotel. The little steam yacht, Wenonah, which had left Chatham at 5 o'clock in the morning to bring them home.

It was known that the premier had arrived, flags were raised and an

He referred at some length to the economic situation in Germany in 1918, and on the continent, while he deplored the prevalence of intemperateness amongst a certain class of working people of both sexes in some of the great cities, he pointed out that the conditions in that regard in Germany and Holland demonstrated that those countries had practically solved the temperance entertained and the spacious parlors were filled by a party representative of what was best in all classes of the community.

ing of tributes when a few months ago he recalled where they now stood to mark the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie's marriage, and said that those not having that memory could never this evening imagine that Mrs. Tweedie had been so long out of ghilohd. All were glad to realize how much she must have enjoyed the trip to Ireland.

Premier Tweedie, in reply, thanked the mayor for his expressions of welcome

The postponement of the coronation ceremonies had, of course, disarranged their programme somewhat. He had determined to leave on the 24th of July for their return home, but when it was announced that the coronation would take place on the 9th of August he felt that Premier Tweedie's remarks were received with great applause and at the close of the festivities, after 11 o'clock, three cheers were given for him and for Mrs. Tweedie. The band played Home Again and Auld Lang Syne, and the celebration ended.

There lives not a man on earth who has not in him the power to do good. What men want is not talent—it is purpose; in other words, not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.

[illegible]

IMPORTANT MEETING HELD AT KINGSTON.

A meeting of ratepayers was held Monday night at Kingston, Kings county, for consideration of the scheme to establish a Macdonald school there. More than 200

Dr. J. R. Inch, chief superintendent of education, described the growth of sentimentality in the school garden containing plots for every child.

The New Brunswick government encourages the movement by providing that where central schools are established, one-half of the expense of conveying

For instance, if a child plant 10 grains of wheat in a row, 10 grains of Indian 221 class, seven hours, three or four days, and the prize was the best winning in one, two, three or four days.

The 221 tour, purse $1,000, results follows:-

Kwan, Ch. H. Kremlin-America, by Kentucky Prince (Carpenter), by Nippon, ch. H. Kremlin-America, by

In our educational progress not much as been done for the girls and boys in rural schools compared with what has been given to an made possible for the children in towns and cities. The diffi-

time of his coming home and wheth
would be by way of the Intercoloni Canadian Pacific was lacking, so the little steam yacht, Wenonah, which had left Chatham at 5 o'clock in the morning to bring them home.

As soon as it was known that the premier had arrived, flags were raised and an impromptu welcome arranged for the evening.

He was most favorably impressed with entertained and the spacious parlors were filled by a party representative of what was best in all classes of the community.

ing of tributes when a few months ago he recalled where they now stood to mark the anniversary of Mr and Mrs. Tweedie's marriage, and said that those not having that privilege would never this evening imagine that Mrs. Tweedie had been so long out of Guelph. All were glad to realize how much she must have enjoyed the trip to England.

Premier Tweedie, in reply, thanked the mayor for his expressions of welcome

The postponement of the coronation ceremonies had, of course, disarranged their programme somewhat. He had determined to leave on the 24th of July for their return home, but when it was announced that the coronation would take place on the 9th of August he felt that Premier Tweedie's remarks were received with great applause and at the close of the festivities, after 11 o'clock, three cheers were given for him and for Mrs. Tweedie. The band played Home Again and Auld Lang Syne, and the celebration ended.

There lives not a man on earth who has not in him the power to do good. What men want is not talent—it is purpose; in other words, not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.