No investigation, in either case, has taken place. Since the death of Mr. End, who, as Police Magistrate, was the terror of evil doers, rowdyism holds the sway at Bath-urst. It was rumored that several members of the Government were expected to be in Bathurst last week, for the purpose of en-quiring into matters and things relating to the County. The people of Bathurst are anxious that it should take place as eatly as possible and hope that those who really deserve censure may get their full share of it. Not to be Given. The total number of emigrants who left Liverpool during the year 1872 for America was 164,000. A despatch from Manchester announces to the county.
