

There is one final point. We shall keep the whole South African situation under review. We are moving now to make sure that our own embargo against sales of arms to South Africa is on all fours with the recent declaration of the Security Council that placed an international embargo on arms shipments. This is the first time in the history of the United Nations that such an embargo has been imposed on a member state. I believe this is a step in the direction it is inevitable and appropriate for us to take. I re-emphasize that we shall keep the whole South African situation under review.
