FOR TEACHERS
 A NEW Educational Journal.

THE SCIENCE COMPANY of New York announce that they will publish, at an early date, the first number of SCIENCE AND EDUCATION.

The aim of this paper is twofold. 1st. To give the teacher a paper that will interest him as an individual; and, 2nd, to give him the most reliable and valuable information obtainable regarding his profession.

The material for the first part will be such as has been originally secured for the weekly paper SCIENCE; that for the second part will be carefully selected, with special attention to the needs of educators.

SCIENCE AND EDUCATION will contain 13 numbers in each annual volume (appearing every fourth Friday during the year). To immediate subscribers for 1887, however, we will give free the two numbers appearing in November and December of this year. The subscription price will be $1.50 a year. Sample copies of the first (November) number will be sent free upon application. Address

PREMIUMS OFFERED BY THE Magazine of American History.

To every subscriber who sends $5 to the publishers during the months of October and November, 1886.

The choice between a copy of "Triumphant Democracy," by Andrew Carnegie—the great book of the season—and the "Life of Robert Fulton, and History of Steam Navigation," by Col. Thomas W. Knox—one of the best books of its character ever issued by an American publisher. In sending your subscription please state which of the above popular and useful books you will have, and it will be forwarded at once to your address, post-paid.

The Magazine of American History

Is an illustrated historical monthly, founded in 1877, wherein the stirring incidents of the past are treated in a captivating as well as authentic manner. To the public libraries it has become an absolute necessity; colleges and schools in every part of the land are learning its value in the instruction and culture of their pupils.

It is one of the best of household journals, and it has the largest circulation of any magazine of its character in the world. It has grown remarkably prosperous during the past year, and is now prepared to extend its usefulness to every quarter of the country, and to foreign lands. It will continue to offer as this method has proved a great convenience to persons residing at a distance, and particularly to schools, colleges and reading rooms.
