

the administration of the temporal affairs of the Church . Provided always that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to deprive the persons hereinafore mentioned of the right of being present, deliberating, and voting, at meetings of Fabriques in any case not specified in this Act whereat they may be by Law entitled so to do.