

CAP. III.

See 14 Vic. c. 3.

An Act to establish the salaries payable to the Attorney General and Solicitor General, and clerk of the Crown and Prothonotary of Prince Edward Island, for their public services.

[Passed April 16, 1853.]

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, as follows:

Allowance to Attorney and advocate general.

I. There shall be allowed and paid unto the present or any future Attorney General and advocate general of this Island, as and for the salary of that office, the sum of two hundred pounds of lawful current money of this Island per annum, the same to be in lieu of all fees of office, charges, allowances and emoluments, paid or payable by the Government of this Island to the Attorney General and advocate general, on account of Crown prosecutions, or for opinions, or for putting marginal notes to the statutes, or for any other miscellaneous services performed by him for the Government in his official capacity; the said salary to be in addition to the annual salary of one hundred and fifty pounds payable to the Attorney General, under the provisions of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to commute the Crown revenues of Prince Edward Island, and to provide for the civil list thereof, as well as for certain compensations therein mentioned."

Allowance to the solicitor general.

II. There shall be allowed and paid unto the present or any future solicitor general of this Island, as and for the salary of that office, the sum of one hundred pounds of lawful current money of this Island per annum; the same to be in lieu of all fees of office, charges, allowances and emoluments, paid or payable by the Government of this Island, to the solicitor general, on account of Crown prosecutions, or for opinions, or for any other miscellaneous services performed by him for the Government in his official capacity.

Allowance to the clerk of the Crown and Prothonotary.

III. There shall be allowed and paid unto the present or any future clerk of the Crown and Prothonotary, as and for the salary of that office, for public services to be performed, the sum of one hundred and sixty pounds of lawful current money of this Island per annum; the same to be in lieu of all fees of office, charges, allowances and emoluments, paid or payable to him or his deputies by the Government of this Island, on account of Crown prosecutions, or for disbursing the fees of witnesses or jurors, or for any other miscellaneous services usually performed by him for the Government of this Island, or for the doing of which he now can or hereafter, unless this Act had been passed, might make any charge against
