industry, docility, agreeable manners and so forth. All this is perfectly true. The French Canadian has virtues and it is necessary to live with him without breaking the Queen's peace. The question is the terms of the con-No dog can wag the Quebec Cabinet, be-cause it has no Taillon now.

presses. The question is the terms of the con-tract. He is poor and pays but little taxes to the state, and is insatiable in his demands on the public purse. Ever since the union of the Provinces of Upper and Lover Canada he has by union among his own nationality sought to control the Government of the country for his own benefit, and has been very successful. At every succeeding census he has managed to have a chief of the Bureau of Statistics of his rown has told much in his favor in the appor-tionment of representation. His people go fineral, but we all despise a great general who rives up and assures the mourners that he is root dead. Such conduct is enough to demoralize any funeral.

There is to be a three-cornered duel in New York after all, the Republicans having placed in the field Mr. Theodore Roosevels, as agains thaving the most time of this province, and I will state the United Democracy and Henry George. The temptation to run between candidate is not inters within the temptation to run between candidate is not third parts eldom amounts to much upon its is over much the taking a walk upon an empty stomachmetric that senters.
