

ly Presentation

S '75

The "Stop the Commie Hordes" Award- to Ralph Watzke for hauling the UAB up before DIE Board on the grounds of unfair electioneering

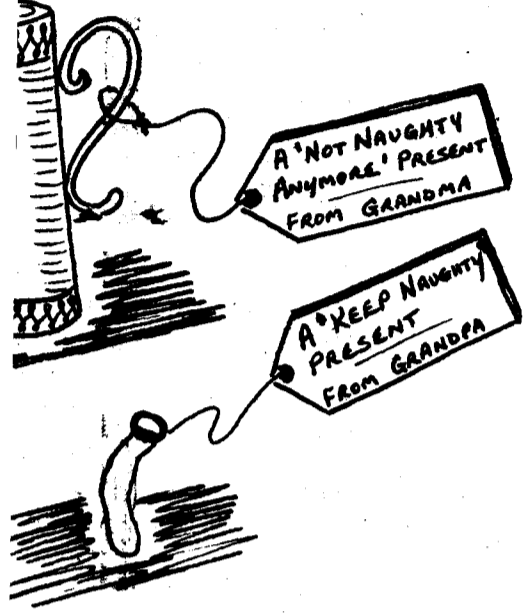

The "Countess of Corbett Hall" Award- to Rose Burko, for wanting to convert Corbett Hall into a brothel.

The "Let's Finish With a Lawsuit" Award- to Bernie Fritze, who loves going to DIE Board.

The "Short Is Beautiful" Award- to Rick Peterson, who gave away his game stick to an eight-year old - and it's just the right size.

The "Ron Pylpa Speaker" Award- to Terry Sharon, who's continuing Ron's image for him.

The "Million Dollar Baby" Award - to Joe McGhie, who used to be president during the depression.

The "Nouveau Riche" Award- to Johnny on the Spot Graeme Leadbeater, our first affluent president in 4 years.

The "Learners' Permit" Award- to Cathy who will unite in holy summer (finally).

The "I'm Long Overdue" Award- to Greg Neiman, who's finally made it.

The "Unknown Nickname" Award- to Brian "Graffiti" Black.

The "Let's Go To Calgary" Award- to Jim Hagerty who'll eventually steal the University van while doing distribution and go to Calgary.

The "One, Seven, Three, Eighteen, Oh Shit, I Can't Do It" Award- to the Registrar's office, which miscounted the number of weeks we should have taken in the second semester.

The "Cold Beer, Warm Heart" Award to Ron Stewart, head slinger of RATT.

The "Last Tango On Campus" Award- to Bill Broad head of CSA of A for his strenuous attempts to misrepresent the campus non-academic staff.

The "Tavern Tyrant" Award to Harry Grunsky, manager of the HUB PUB.

The "1984 Politician" Award - to Wayne Chase, who's years ahead of himself.

The "Eat Your Heart Out, Elton" Award - to Varsity Arena organist Rick Leblanc for Best Musical Score for a Hockey Series.

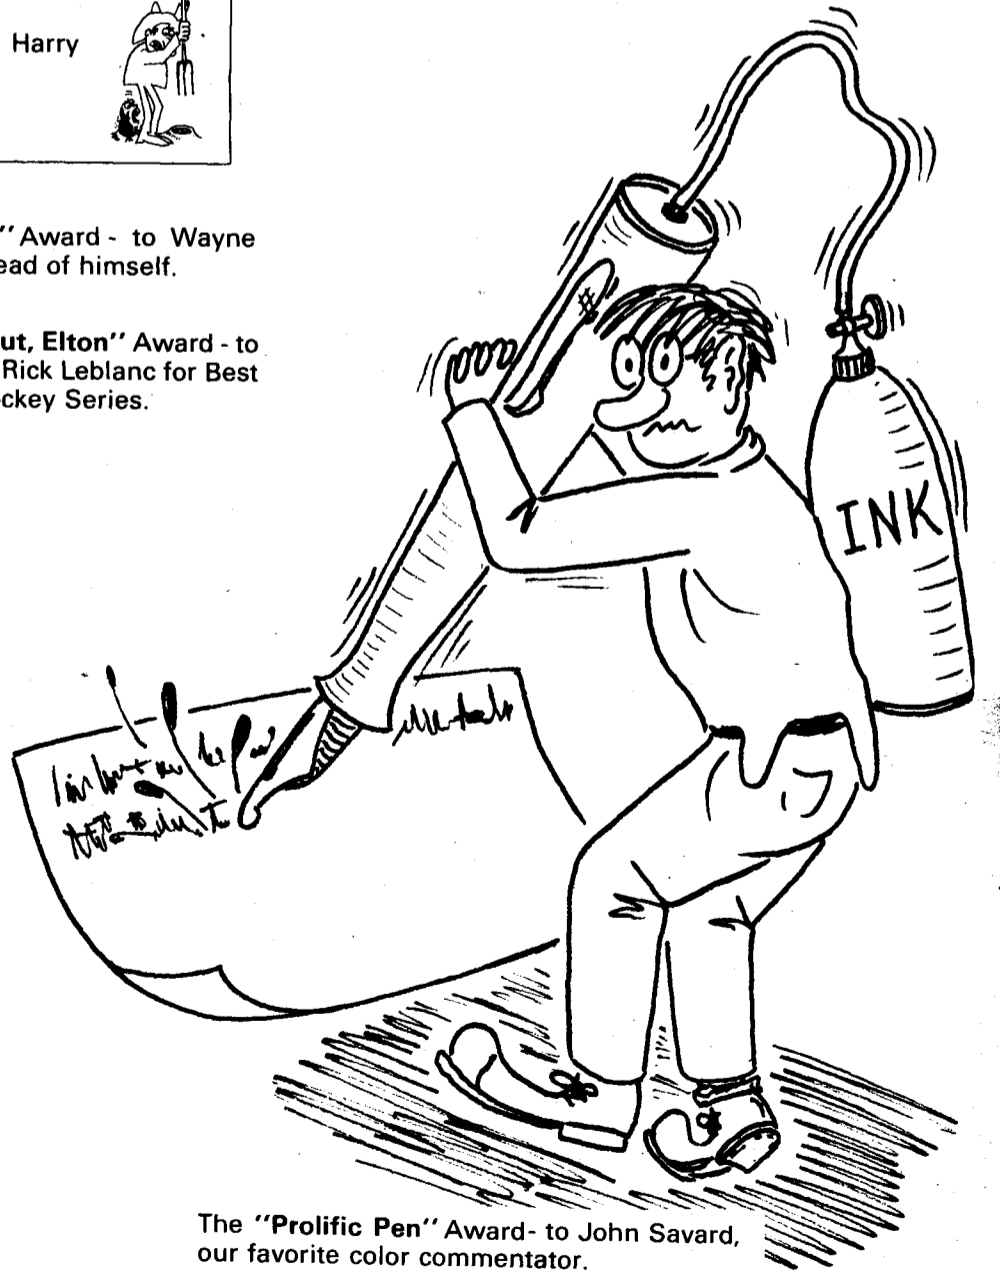

The "I've been talking to my friends" Award- to Jim Tanner, who talks to his friends.

The "Jeremiah Q. Fingerball" Award- to all our anonymous contributors, whose works remain unpublished as well as unsigned.

The "I Left The Money in my Genes" Award- to Gene Nicol and Gene Borys, SU's money men.

The "Inspired Insanity" Award- to Gary Kirk, Gary Delainey, and Gerry Rasmussen, our intrepid cartoonists.

The "Fly-By-Nite Concert Promotion" Award- to Tony Melnechuk who's really had trouble with the big shows all year.

The "Prolific Pen" Award- to John Savard, our favorite color commentator.

Award- to the Fifth