

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text on the left page of the document.]

Waterloo¹
July 19th 1899.

Dear _____

As we have known each other such a short time, I do not know what to call you so you will have to invent a name.

Mr & Mrs Dickie and the boys went this morning at half past six, Norman was very excited as he has never seen a steamer.

We will try and come and see you all, as often.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 1

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA