bigger than I am, Max, fifteen years of age, wants to go for the same purpose. I do not suppose that you can be bothered with two, but if you can he certainly would like to go too.

Please write me as to what you think can be done and in case you do take them I hope you will never speak a word of English to them but see that they either talk French or nothing.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Maher, Jnr.,

Tadoussac,
