Ottawa, Ont., 21st January 1925.

Dear Mr. Woods,

I hope you will forgive me writing you on a subject really your own concern and into which I have no right to pry. I do so merely by way of suggestion based on my own interest as Party Leader. As you know Mr. T.M. Fraser who did some work for your people here has been made Deputy Clerk of the House of Commons. It would be of advantage to us if Mr. J. A. Stevenson, whom you probably know personally, and ^{with} whose writings you undoubtedly are familiar would be acceptable to yourself for purposes of special articles from Ottawa. I would not consider Mr. Stevenson a good man for the gathering of departmental news, but as a writer of special articles I doubt if he has his equal. He did work last year for the Winnipeg Tribune. His path has been somewhat difficult of late because he has not been able to fall in step with the Government and especially with the Prime Minister. If this appeals to you I would appreciate it very much indeed.

Yours very truly,

J. H. Woods, Esquire,
