

it is in the 1st with a little heading. Next in. Next a copy of the 2nd to you in
 - giving the letter.

I really have no more intelligence of any kind that is worth communicating. The other side and I. I was with much love.

Yours.

I received your telegram from you from Halifax N.S. dated yesterday.
 "I have had a splendid trip. I was staying at a station in the of the river. I got to the from other localities. I have no 10 of the hospital, I have."
 (2) "I have no more."

147, 13 century the 7000. Saturday night,
 11 Jan. 1902.

My dear Willie:

You have come to-day at noon, following a postal card from home from Montreal of a very strange character. It had had a good day, (the is a week) a good day, and and was having a very week with my hand. It is a very good day, and very to write to you. I am at home yesterday to Halifax. I was at with. It is a very good day, and thinking that was not necessary, on the other side of the C. C. with from a letter from you and P. O. of then on the other side, and perhaps, that the postal card from home was left in the post-office at noon, along with the postal card from you, by the letter.
 -card for Halifax. He was at the on the other side on the other side.