FOR SALES:

On the 2nd February 1945 about 22.00 hours, in the cafe located at 18 Avenue de la Gare, three soldiers came in, two with pistols, the other without. Before they took anything from me, they stole from another civilian who was in the cafe. From the first his wallet, from the second his money. Afterwards they took my wallet and my wristwatch. I recovered two of them.

Antwerp, 2nd April 1945.

(Signed) SMITHSON

I have translated the above statement as told to me by SMITHSON himself, and it is a true translation of what he actually stated.
