

Thursday 27

~~Friday~~

Monday

will be chequic day again but guess likely that will be my share of it.

Hamilton wouldn't try to take the needle out of Lena's hand he trayed it by its right in between two bones & he said if he worked at it she might loose the use of her thumb for her to go to T'con that they had a light they could turn up so they could see right through her hand & know where to cut for it guess she's going over Wednesday.

Hope I have a letter from you tomorrow I want be sure you going to get a bit of my mail I'll you send me some address I wouldn't have got this letter of yours 'till tomorrow only Maggie Campbell give it to Prefce Saturday night Elwood never waited for the train Sat morning Guess the bl's think now that John's leg has started to knit.
Think Hardy come down river yesterday quite a trip.
