Question.

Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer.

This section, if it occurs in the course of the trial, is the reserved to the Court. It is not to be used in the case of a finding of guilty, unless the Court is satisfied that the evidence is so exceptional as to warrant its use. In such a case the President must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must inquire into the nature and source of the additional proof.

Cross-examined by the accused. Yes as to AFB 246

& Character
