

Article 97

1. Migrants, nomads, seasonal workers or persons taking part in periodic mass congregations, and any ship, in particular small boats for international coastal traffic, aircraft, train, road vehicle or other means of transport carrying them, may be subjected to additional health measures conforming with the laws and regulations of each State concerned, and with any agreement concluded between any such States.
2. Each State shall notify the Organization of the provisions of any such laws and regulations or agreement.
3. The standards of hygiene on ships and aircraft carrying persons taking part in periodic mass congregations shall not be inferior to those recommended by the Organization.

Article 98

1. Special treaties or arrangements may be concluded between two or more States having certain interests in common owing to their health, geographical, social or economic conditions, in order to facilitate the application of these Regulations, and in particular with regard to:
 - (a) the direct and rapid exchange of epidemiological information between neighbouring territories;
 - (b) the health measures to be applied to international coastal traffic and to international traffic on inland waterways, including lakes;
 - (c) the health measures to be applied in contiguous territories at their common frontier;
 - (d) the combination of two or more territories into one territory for the purposes of any of the health measures to be applied in accordance with these Regulations;
 - (e) arrangements for carrying infected persons by means of transport specially adapted for the purpose.
2. The treaties or arrangements referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be in conflict with the provisions of these Regulations.
3. States shall inform the Organization of any such treaty or arrangement which they may conclude. The Organization shall send immediately to all health administrations information concerning any such treaty or arrangement.

PART IX—FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 99

1. These Regulations, subject to the provisions of Article 101 and the exceptions hereinafter provided, replace, as between the States bound by these Regulations and as between these States and the Organization, the provisions of the following existing International Sanitary Conventions, Regulations and similar agreements:
 - (a) International Sanitary Convention, signed in Paris, 3 December 1903;
