

Algoma Quarterly,

SEPTEMBER 1st, 1875.

THE object of this Paper, 1500 copies of which are issued quarterly, is to afford information about our Missionary work in Algoma to all our friends who are helping us. For the support of our Missions we depend on the alms of the Church.

The Diocese of Algoma being a purely Missionary Diocese, depends almost entirely upon extraneous aid for the support of its Missions.

“In Journeys oft.”

Early in the month of June, our Bishop, at the kind invitation of Bishop Binney, visited the Diocese of Nova Scotia, for the purpose of “telling his tale,” in behalf of Algoma; and whilst there met with the kindest welcome from the Bishop, Clergy, and Laity, who, one and all, expressed their lively interest in his work, and willingness to identify themselves with the other Dioceses of the Ecclesiastical Province, in sustaining the Missionary Diocese of Algoma.

During his stay there the Bishop addressed the congregations of St. Luke's Cathedral, and St. Paul's, Halifax; also St. Matthias, Windsor; St. John's, Truro; St. James's, Pictou; Christ Church, Amherst; St. Mary's, Summerside; and St. Paul's, Charlottetown, P. E. I.;
